GREAT AUTOMOBILE AND COAL INDUSTRIES FACING SHOWDOWN

MUST ACCEPT CODES STRIPPED OF NON-UNION PHRASING OR BATTLE ALONE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24. (AP)—Closely following a declaration banning anti-union qualifications in codes of competition, Hugh S. Johnson summoned to recovery administration headquarters today spokesmen for coal mine operators and labor, in an effort to clinch a final agreement on a bituminous code.

The labor men, led by John L. Lewis, United Mine Workers president, were first to arrive and sat for more than an hour in an ante-room until operators were heard from.

Johnson, informed that both labor and industrial leaders were pleased with the interpretation he issued last night, which stated explicitly that, although no open shop clause could be written into the code, the NRA had no ban on company union as such, intended to press for agreement on the remaining points at issue.

The first was wages, the union demanding a basic $5 a day rate, the non-union operators, $3.84. There were signs, however, that a compromise on this point was not distant.

Settlement of the automobile code, which now contains an open shop clause coming under the ban expressed in Johnson's statement, was held in abeyance. Spokesmen for the industry said they were not yet clear as to the meaning of this statement and intended to obtain an audience with Johnson for a definite clarification, but officials did not believe a settlement would [illegible] long delayed.

[illegible] were described as im[illegible] for presentation of both [illegible]ements to President Roosevelt [illegible] signature by the end of the week.

[illegible] hearing on a code for retail [illegible] developed testimony concerning unfair practices which various factions wished to have banned by code declaration.

Thirty witnesses had applied for time to discuss this angle, and it did not appear likely the hearing could be finished before proceedings begin tomorrow on the separate code for retail drug stores. Officials handling the women's dress industry code hearing sought to wind it up today to avoid taking a recess over the week-end.

Three Killed And Two Are Injured In Boiler Blast

SULPHUR SPRINGS, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Three men were killed and two others were injured today when the boiler of a cotton gin 15 miles north of Sulphur Springs exploded.

The dead were:
WILLIAM SOUTH, 30.
DON WILLIAMS, 27.
CLIFFORD TAYLOR., owner and operator of the gun.

Homer Van Zandt, an employe, was injured seriously and physicians described his condition as critical. Harve Jumper, a farmer who was having his cotton ginned at the time, suffered head injuries and a part of his right foot was blown off.

The injured were brought to a hospital here. All were residents of the Nelta community, 15 miles north of this town.

FARLEY IS ACCUSED MISREPRESENTATION VOTERS OBLIGATION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Calling attention to provisions of the law against interference with the free exercise of the ballot, Canon William Sheafe Chase, superintendent of the International Reform federation today declared Postmaster General Farley had "misrepresented the facts" as to the binding effect of the Democratic repeal plank of 1932.

He quoted Farley as having advised the voters of Washington State that because of the "party platform pledge" Democrats have a special "obligation" to work and vote for repeal.

"The Democratic platform contains no pledge to work for repeal,' Canon Chase said in a telegram to Mrs. Martha Murray, a woman's Christian Temperance Union official at Spokane. "The Democratic platform did not say 'we are pledged to work for repeal, or vote for it,' but 'we favor the repeal of the eighteenth amendment. That leaves every Democrat free to vote as his conscience dictates and as the constitution guarantees.

Anyone who conspires against free exercise of the right of the ballot violates section 19 of the federal criminal code and is liable to be imprisoned for ten years and be ineligible to any office, or place of honor, profit or trust, created by the constitution.

"To say that anyone voting against repeal is hindering the industrial recovery act is deceiving the public. Ex-Governor Al Smith, in this connection, has rightly said: 'Threats, intimidation, compulsion, boycotts, blacklists and suppression of opinion were never contemplated by the law, and therefore, have no rightful place in this picture.' ## SOUTHERN RAILWAY CRACK FAST TRAIN WRECKED THURSDAY

ENGINEER AND FIREMAN DEAD, THIRTEEN INJURED; STORM BELIEVED CAUSE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24. (AP)—The Crescent Limited, crack Southern Railway train en route from New York to New Orleans, carried two enginemen to instant death and sent 13 passengers and members of its crew to hospitals when it was derailed over a swollen stream near here at 3:45 a.m. this morning.

A weakened bridge over the eastern branch of the Anacostia river, just outside the capital, caused the disastrous wreck.

The engine left the rails, plunging into mudbank with its operating cab submerged in the stream.

A. H. Bryde of Washington, engineer, and J. H. Faye, fireman, of Perryville, Maryland, were killed.

A mail car and a coach were hurled ahead of the engine, diagonally across the tracks. A Pullman car was thrown into the stream and almost submerged. Several pasengers were in it at the time, but all escaped.

Four other cars hung precariously to the roadbed, saved from a worse crash only by their couplings. Two cars, off the track, swung directly over the stream, partially submerged. And only the pull of the cars in front and behind prevented their toppling into the water.

GOVERNMENT DARES GANGSTER THREATS IN URSCHEL CASE

WILL RUSH ACCUSED KIDNAPERS OKLAHOMA CITY FOR SPEEDY TRIAL

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Daring gangdom to interfere, the government's quick acting prosecutors sought today to rush Charles F. Urschel's accused kidnapers to Oklahoma for a speedy trial and, they hope, a sweep of extreme sentences.

Hurrying to Texas on the heels of the grand jury's indictment of fourteen persons for conspiracy to kidnap the oil millionaire for $200,000 ransom—a ransom that was paid—Joseph B. Keenan, special assistant attorney general; District Attorney Herbert K. Hyde and D. H. Colvin, in charge of the case for the United States bureau of investigation, sought removal orders from Harvey Bailey and the four members of the Shannon family, jailed at Dallas for the kidnaping.

Likewise, airplanes speeded certified copies of the indictment to Denver, where Albert Bates, accused of the "strong arm" and of the "snatch" is jailed, and to Minneapolis, where at least five of those indicted are either held or hunted.

"We are ready to meet the challenge of these gangsters and outlaws fearlessly and with their own weapons,' said Keenan, in a dramatic statement at the close of the 5-hour grand jury session, during which Urschel and a score of other witnesses were protected by sub-machine guns in the hands of Federal operatives.

"Bates and Bailey will be transported to Oklahoma City without

Corsicana's Check-Up On NRA Campaign Will Be Started Next Week

Corsicana's check-up on the completeness of its participation in the National Recovery Administration's campaign will start Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock with a survey of the entire business sections of the city, with committeemen determining the number of firms participating and the number of men and women who have found employment under the new regulations.

Simultaneously the registration of consumers will start at a special booth in the postoffice as a portion of the campaign under the direction of Mrs. R. L. Hamilton, who is now engaged in securing representatives of all women's organizations in the city to aid in the formation of a Consumers' Council, who will eventually aid in the enforcement of the new rules. Further details of the consumers campaign are expected within the next few days.

The "big push" in the business section will be under the command of Festus A. Pierce, and he will be assisted by the following: E. E. Babers, Ben F. Blackmon, F. V. Blucher, E. B. Brackett, W. P. Brown, L. S. Cooper, John Corley, E. Y. Cunningham, Allen Edens, A. G. Elliott, E. W. Ellis, Clyde Foster, W. A. Lang, Boyce Martin, Frank Moon, J. S. Murchison, W. P. McCammon, W. W. McClendon, John M. McGee, F. E. McPherson, R. D. Neece, T. C. Orr, D. Parham, Carl Patterson, F. C. Paul, Ed M. Polk, Jr., Russell Purifoy, Ed Rittersbacher, J. N. Royall, J. A. Silverberg, W. M. Spear, Ralph Stell, Marvin Thomas, Henry Walker and P. D. Williams.

Information at C. of C.

W. O. Harwell, secretary of the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce, again called the attention of the general public to the fact that all rulings on special cases that have been handed down may be found in the files in his office, and that copies of all tentive codes that have been approved are also to be found. He offered the services of his organization in consultative capacity to any one desiring to utilize it.

It was also announced that sessions of the policy committee which will handle requests and applications for suspension of provisions would be executive because of the nature of the information which would be required of the applicant. All applications must be presented in

WOMEN WILL HAVE IMPORTANT PLACE IN NRA CAMPAIGN

ALL ASKED SIGN PLEDGE AND PATRONIZE BLUE EAGLE STORES

An important place will be occupied by the women of Corsicana in the final success of the NRA campaign in this city according to Mrs. A. A. Allison, who was recently named publicity chairman for the Consumers' Council, by Mrs. R. L. Hamilton, chairman of this division of the drive.

"The women of Corsicana, under the leadership of Mrs. R. L. Hamilton, are to have no small part in making the NRA a success in our city. Statistics show that the women spend about 85 per cent of the family income, hence their cooperation in putting over the NRA program is imperative," Mrs. Allison said.

"No woman is to be coerced," declared the publicity chairman, "but the idea is to appeal to her spirit of loyalty and patriotism."

"The plan is to have every woman with purchasing power sign the NRA pledge to patronize, as far as possible, those merchants and dealers flying the Blue Eagle. These pledge cards will be ready

ELECTION RETURNS SATURDAY NIGHT AT DAILY SUN OFFICE; LOCAL AND STATE TABULATION

All official arrangements for the election Saturday when a number of constitutional amendments will be submitted to the electorate have been completed.

Voters of Texas Saturday, Aug. 26, will decide whether $20,000,000 relief bonds will be authorized or not to aid in the relief of the unemployed.

Another question sumbitted is whether the Eighteenth Amendment to the U. S. Constitution will be repealed in Texas and 3.2 beer legalized.

Election judges of the forty-eight precincts in Navarro county met here Saturday in a meeting called by County Judge C. E. McWilliams received final instructions relative to returns, etc., and also were given the election boxes and other election supplies.

The poles will be opened at 8 o'clock Saturday morning and will be closed Saturday night at 7 o-clock.

The Corsicana Daily Sun will receive the returns from the forty-eight precincts in Navarro county in addition to the returns from the state over a specially leased wire. Results will be thrown on a screen across the street from the Daily Sun office as has been the custom of the Sun-Light papers for many years on election nights.

All presiding judges have been requested and urged by county officials and others to telephone the results of their boxes as soon as the ballots have been counted to the Daily Sun (collect.) If one of the boxes in the county is not reported a complete count cannot be ascertained on the night of the election.

Only sixty absentee ballots were cast at the office of L. C. Morgan, county clerk, for the approaching election, a considerably smaller number than was anticipated.

Three things are calculated to have entered into the small absentee vote.

Fewer peaple have poll tax receipts this year tran in normal years; the approaching election has not excited the interest and agitation in ordinary primary elections when personalities, etc., tend to cause intensive campaigns; and the fact that fewer residents here are away on extended vacations than in the average year.

County Clerk Morgan mailed the absentee votes cast in the approaching election to the respective presiding judges of the precincts Thursday morning.

Important Notice to All Election Judges

Immediately upon completion of the count in your box, please phone (collect) results of the election on all amendments and beer elections to the Daily Sun office at Corsicana.

The Sun will attempt to give complete county totals on the various amendments on the night of the election. This will be impossible without your box.

Just tell your operator to connect you with the Daily Sun, Corsicana (collect). This is very important and your cooperation in the matter will be greatly appreciated.

The new election laws passed this year require the sending in of the unofficial complete count on the night of the election. County Clerk L. C. Morgan will make his headquarters at the Sun office on the night of the election. ..

SHANNONS CLOSELY GUARDED ON REMOVAL TO FT. WORTH COURT

BAILEY IS ALSO ORDERED BROUGHT INTO COURT AND GANGSTERS ARE DEFIED

DALLAS, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Handcuffed to a Dallas detective, Harvey Bailey was taken by automobile today to Fort Worth for a hearing before United States Judge James Wilson to determine whether he would be transferred immediately to Oklahoma City in connection with the kidnaping of Charles F. Urschel.

Bailey was handcuffed to Detective Jack Archer and placed in the rear seat of a Dallas police car. Beside him was Detective Captain Will Fritz, holding a machine gun. Bob Jones, another member of the city's homicide squad, was driving.

Bailey's automobile was trailed by another driven by F. J. Blake, chief of the federal department of justice. That car was well-manned with machine gunners. Another automobile of heavily-armed Dallas and Tarrant county deputies led the procession.

Bailey had been held in the county jail here since Aug. 12 when he was arrested with R. G. Shannon and four members of Shannon's family at their farm near Paradise, Tex.

STATE BOND ISSUE FOR RELIEF BACKED BY SENATOR GREER

CALLS UPON PEOPLE TEXAS TO ASSURE ADEQUATE RELIEF FOR WINTER

The following communication from the Hon. Julian P. Greer of Elkhart, representing the Sixth Texas Senatorial district in the Texas senate, in regard to the need and desirability of voting for the $20,000,000 State relief bond issue, is self-explanatory:

Elkhart, Texas, Aug. 19, 1933.
To The People of the Sixth Senatorial District:

A very grave situation confronts Texas as well as the entire United States at the present time. Men are without work who have always been able to secure employment before, but who are thrown out of employment due to forces over which they have no control. These men are red-blooded citizens and willing to work if only a job can be provided. In times like this when it is necessary to resort to mass movement to secure employment of the ordinary number of workers in industry it is inevitable that private business is going to be unable to give a job to every unemployed person. Our business leaders are co-operating nobly to put every person to work that they can, but artificial prosperity is no match for natural prosperity and hundreds of thousands of Texans re going to be without jobs this winter if the twenty million dollar bond issue fails to pass.

The Federal government is going to be forced to use the funds appropriated by Congress in those states where the most destitution exists, and naturally concludes

Humble Company Posts Ten Cent Crude Price Hike

HOUSTON, Aug. 24.—(AP)—The Humble Oil and Refining company this afternoon announced a 10 cent increase in the prices for crude oil in the fields which it serves. The announcement was made by R. L. Blaffer, president.

All grades of crude were advanced 10 cents. East Texas crude was posted at sixty cents; North Texas at 62 cents; Conroe at 79 cents; other Gulf coast fields at 72 cents, and Tom Ball at 75 cents.

Carter Posts Increase.

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 24.—(AP)—The Carter Oil Company, Standard Oil Co., of New Jersey unit, announced today a ten-cent advance in crude oil prices in Oklahoma and Kansas effective tomorrow morning. The new schedule will be on a gravity scale ranging from 40 cents for oil below 25 degrees to 72 cents for oil of 40 gravity and above.

SPREADING SLEEPING SICKNESS REPORTED; DEATHS NUMEROUS

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 24.—(AP)—As the toll from the epidemic of "sleeping sickness" reached twenty-seven in this city and its suburban communities, the puzzling disease was reported in another bordering state—Illinois.

Previously cases in Oklahoma and Kansas, as well as other Missouri towns, had been diagnosed as encephalitis, as the disease is known in medical circles, but the ones reported during the last 24 hours at Pekin and Pleasant Hill, Ill., are the first known in that state during the current outbreak.

The deaths of four persons here yesterday was the greatest number to succumb to the disease in one day during the epidemic which took its first victim July 30. It also surpassed the number of fatalities from the disease in the Spokane, Wash., outbreak of 1919-21 when nineteen lost their lives.

Nine new cases have been reported in St. Louis county and four in the city of St. Louis, bringing the total number since the epidemic started to 197.

Meanwhile federal, state and city medical experts are concentrating their investigation in an attempt to find a cause and cure on the possibility that insects are suspected as being possible carriers of the infeccion.

FORT WORTH, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Death here of Jim Allen Rice, 18 months, of what commonly is termed "sleeping sickness," brought about a statement today

TEXANS MUST APPROVE STATE RELIEF BOND ISSUE OR LOSE FURTHER FEDERAL ASSISTANCE

AUSTIN, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Addressing Governor Miriam A. Ferguson and others interested in the relief problem here last night, Harry L. Hopkins, federal emergency relief administrator, said that unless Texas authorizes the issuance of bonds to augment government funds, the state cannot expect a continuance of aid from Wasnington.

Explaining that there were approximately 150,000 families, or 750,000 persons, in Texas, at this time receiving relief from the federal government, he declared that the government does not propose to let these persons "even half starve to death."

"We are prepared to see Texas through up to the date of the election next Saturday on a proposed $20,000,000 relief bond issue, but we do not have any intention of paying 95 per cent of the relief bill in Texas after that date," he said.

He explained that the government was willing to match Texas dollars on a basis of one-third of the amount necessary to tide the needy over the emergency period. He added that 25 states are now paying two-thirds of the relief bill.

The work of Lawrence Westbrook, director of the Texas rehabilitation and relief commission, was complimented, and Hopkins said the government was willing to back him to the limit. He said the relief administration in Texas "stacks up" with any in the United States.

Several hundred business men and county administrators from all parts of the state heard Hopkins outline the government's attitude toward the relief problem.

Other speakers included Governor Ferguson, Congressman J. P. Buchanan, Roy Miller of Corpus Christi, Westbrook and William Strauss of Houston, chairman of the bond issue steering committee.

Hopkins, who flew here from Washington, planned to proceed today to New Orleans.

WILL NOT CONTEST REASONABLE BOND FOR ERVIN CONWAY

MOTHER MURDERED GIRL EXPRESSES BELIEF IN INNOCENCE OF ACCUSED

BRYAN, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Ervin Conway, charged with murder for the death of his fiancee, Miss Ledelle Hammond, last June, was admitted to bail in the sum of $10,000 at Franklin today.

The bond was granted by agreement of John R. Grace, county attorney, and attorneys for Conway. The bond was signed by more than a score of the youth's friends.

Conway was held to the grand jury which convenes Nov. 13.

Both Conway and Miss Hammond were students of Baylor University at Waco. She was shot the night of June 16 while riding to Bryan with Conway, who

Chicago Nurse Drops Charges Against Texan

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Polo again claimed the attention of its second ranking ace, Cecil Smith, San Antonio, Tex., today after an Evanston nurse had dropped charges of criminal assault against him.

In a letter delivered to authorities last night by her father, Dr. R. T. Rose, prominent dentist of Cooperstown, N. D., Miss Eugenia Rose, 23, the complainant said:

"I do not wish to prosecute Mr. Cecil Smith on the charge of rape. I expect to be married and I do not want any more publicity. I will not appear against Mr. Smith and I wish you would therefore dismiss the case at once."

The $5,000 bond of the polo star was cancelled and he left at once for New York to practice for a tourney next month. He issued a statement reiterating previous declaration that the "claim was preposterous" and that he was "ready to meet it in court at any time."

Government Has Launched Another Destroying Plan

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—(AP)—The government was launched today upon its experimental hog slaughtering program in an attempt to raise pork prices and 30,000 of the squealing animals already had been bought for the sacrifice.

Before the 40-day campaign is over it is expected that 4,000000 pigs and 1,000,000 sows, bearing 6,000,000 unborn piglets, will have been eradicated in this concerted effort to cut down next year's supply.

The wholesale purchasing began yesterday at the Chicago, Omaha, Kansas City, Sioux City, St. Paul, and St. Poseph, Mo., livestock markets, and while the first days total of 30,000 head was considerably under the anticipated average of 100,000 pigs and 25,000 sows a day, it was expected that greater offerings would reach the market as the campaign progressed.

The expense is to be met by a processing tax of about a half cent a pound on pork products. Meanwhile, it was planned to turn much of the newly acquired meat over to the unemployed.

LONG-TIME PROGRAM FOR COTTON ACREAGE REDUCTION BEFORE SECRETARY WALLAC

By SAM B. BLEDSOE
(Copyright, 1933, by The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—(AP)—A long time program combining acreage reduction and a form of price guarantee to the cotton grower is before Secretary Wallace with prospects that its principles will be accepted and the plan announced about September 1.

The program contemplates a reduction of next year's acreage to around 25,000,000. One of its most important features would be an assurance of parity price for that portion of the average crop consumed in this country.

The parity price for cotton is the price at which it must sell to have the purchasing power it had from 1909 to 1914. At present, this is estimated at around 13 cents, approximately five cents above current farm prices.

Final approval of the plan, extending this year's emergency program depends upon the secretary of agriculture and President Roosevelt, and it might be radically revised. Its central features have the approval of farm administration cotton experts and many growers, so revisions to any great extent is regarded as extremely unlikely.

Already Wallace has tentatively approved the reduction to 25,000,000 acres. In return for this, the grower would receive benefit payments on an acreage basis as he did this year.

The benefits probably will be considerably lower per acre than in the emergency reduction campaign this year. These ranged from $6 to $20 and suggestions have been made that they vary from $3 to $11 in the long time campaign.

But the farmer would be certain of the parity price on that portion of his production which is ordinarily used in this country. Roughly, this is about half the average crop.

The proposal does not contemplate that the growers' domestic

NORFOLK, Va., Aug. 24.—(AP)—The Chesapeake steamship liner City of Norfolk is aground in Pocomoke sound, one mile east of the north end of Watt's island. Her passengers are safe.

News of the discovery of the steamer, missing and unheard from since she left Baltimore early Tuesday night, was received by radio at 1:30 today from one of the two navy planes that had been searching for the missing vessel early today.

"Steamer City of Norfolk" read the message received at the Norfolk naval base, "aground one mile east of north end of Watt's Island. Passengers on deck and apparently not in distress. Plane returning to base."

NORFOLK, Va., Aug. 24.—(AP)—Uneasiness as to the fate of the Chesapeake line steamer, City of Norfolk, unheard from since she left Baltimore Tuesday night mounted today as Tidewater Virginia sought to clear away the wreckage of the worst storm in the history of this section.

any special desire for secrecy. If any of their cohorts want to meet the cavlacade along the road, that desire will not be denied them. The government intends to stamp out these outrages if it takes the United States army to do it, but that will not be necessary."

The federal court at Fort Worth, Texas, where the Shannons—Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Shannon and their son and daughter-in-law had planned to seek reduction of $50,000 bonds, was the locale for today's requests for removal orders naming Bailey, who is under $100,000 bond, as well as the Shannons.

Directed by habeas corpus writ to produce the Shannons in Fort Worth this morning, Texas federal authorities said that they would do so, likewise defying possible interference from associates of Bailey, who may yet go on trial for his life in Kansas City for the attempt last June to deliver Frank Nash.

Kelly Still Free.

Still at large, is George (Machine Gun) Kelly, named with Bates in the indictment as having actually snatched Urschel from his sunporch here the night of July 11.

Although the fourteen indicted here yesterday face maximum life terms under the so-called Lindbergh kidnaping law, Keenan declared:

"It is the government's desre to see that each one of these criminals is hanged or electrocuted. There will be no hesitancy in delivering them to the state authorities where the death penalty is provided by law to the end that the message will go out to the underworld that they cannot hope to cope with the United States government."

Nevertheless, federal authorities plan to first try the accused gang here, probably by September 11. Then Bailey may face the Kansas City killing charges in Missouri, where hanging is possible, and Bates and Kelly may be tried in Oklahoma state courts for robbery with firearms, which is punishable by electrocution.

Others Indicted.

Of those indicted, only the names of Bailey, Bates, Kelly and the four Shannons were revealed here, but federal operatives at St. Paul said they were informed five of those accused are Twin Cities men, allegedly connected with the case through circulation of the ransom money. These were named at Sam Kozberg, St. Paul drug company official; Sam Kronick, proprietor of a Minneapolis barber supply concern; [illegible] Hackett, Minneapolis; Charles [illegible], Minneapolis transfer company official, and Barney Berman, who told agents the Urschel ransom money that appeared in the Twin Cities had been received by him in a liquor deal. Kozberg and Kronick were in custody last night and the others were sought, authorities said.

Names of the other two of the fourteen indicted could not be learned.

production be figured on what he raises after he reduces his acreage next year by about fifteen per cent.

The suggestion receiving strongest consideration is that his domestic production be figured on the average number of bales he raised during the last five years.

For instance, in his average production ov reth five years was 100 bales yearly, he would be guaranteed parity on about 50 bales.

If the market price averaged parity, the government would make no further payments. If it fell below, the former would set the difference between the rental he received and the money he would have received from his 50 bales if it had sold at parity. The rentals are paid on idle lands previously used for cotton.

There has been opposition to estimating the average production on the basis of the last five years, and this detail, among others, remains to be worked out.

The money to pay the farmer would come eventually through a processing tax paid by the man who processes cotton—turns it into cloth for instance. That tax is now 4.2 cents a pound on lint cotton.

The new plan would pay the first rental installment—around one-fourth—to the growers about April 1. A second installment would be paid around June 1 and the final rental payment in August. Any additional payments because the average price was below parity would be made after the 1934 harvesting season.

Growers would reduce next year and give the secretary of agriculture an option to exercise a similar arrangement in 1935. The program probably will provide for a revision upward of the aceage planted in the event that sale abroad to Russia or other countries, or unforseen circumstances made a sizeable dent in the present surplus.

The carry-over in the United States in July was more than 9,000,000 bales as compared a normal 4,000,000 to 5,000,000 bales, or even less.

One important factor in the tentative program would be the refusal of credit by government financial agencies to those farmers who refused to sign contracts This would include not only federal land banks and subsidiaries or agencies set up by the farm credit administration, but extend possibly to the refusal by federal reserve banks to discount paper.

The present plan, farm administration officials said today, is a composite of suggestions received by the administration from many sources and of the views of government experts.

scene just at daylight under police escort, follows:

Myer Blackman, 40, Philadelphia; Ben Johnson, Washington; Paul Hanna, 30, Columbia University, New York; Samuel Hamilton, 57; Montclair, New Jersey, A. P. Tugwell, 44, Baton Rouge, La.; Maxwell Galland, 49, Brooklyn; J. C. Cunningham, 50, Philadelphia; Russell L. Mohler, 59, Trenton, N. J.; William H. Brown, 39, Baltimore; A. H. Myers, 35, Thurmont, Maryland; Charles S. Kenny, 34, Westminster, Md.; Aanthony Swano, 26, Philadelphia, and C. S. Smith, 41, Wading River, Long Island.

Ben Johnson, railroad employe, who had been riding in the engine cab, was pulled out of the sunken compartment. Those at the wreck said he probably had been fatally injured, but at the hospital doctors said none of their wreck patients was in any immediate danger.

There were conflicting reports as to the speed of the train. Officials of the road said it had been proceeding under reduced speed orders.

Thought Moving Fast.

Several of those on board the train said it was their impression that it had been moving at a high rate of speed in order to make up part of the hour it was behind schedule.

All of the cars were badly smashed.

The terrific rains that had kept rescue workers throughout all of nearby Prince Georges county, Md., working through the night to get people out of their homes in the low places, had swelled the waters of the eastern branch until they were virtually level with the railroad tracks. The branch had blocked highways into the capital.

One theory as to the cause of the wreck was that dredging a few hundred yards below the bridge had caused gravel and dirt to shift from around the bridge piles. Apparently at least one pile had been washed away before the wreck and others were weakened.

There appeared to be a general opinion among the railroad civil engineers that the train in approaching Washington from the down grade had been going about 50 miles an hour and on reaching the middle of the bridge swayed sufficiently to cause the center tier to crumble.

Some Interesting Features.

Dr. Martin J. Keane, Riverdale, Md., who took charge of the rescue work, said all the pasengers had been gotten out.

After going over the wreck, the the doctor dicked in the window of the mail ca rto get out the mail clerks and there found two clerks calmly sorting mail, even though badly shaken up by the wreck.

One man, whose name was not ascertained, told the doctor after he had been pulled from his berth that he had slept through the wreck which tore the cars apart and knew noting of it until awakened by the rescuers.

Eastern Branch and all other streams in Prince Georges county Md. were out of their banks all night. Rescue squads throughout the entire county worked frantically getting people out of their homes in low places and were still at that work when the Riverdale, Cheverly, Landover, and Bladensburg, Md., squads were summoned to the scene of the wreck.

BOND ISSUE

that any state that fails to make provision for its own citizens is better off than the balance and less entitled to Federal aid in meeting the problems due to unemployment. If we vote the twenty million dollar bond issue for relief of destitution at this time they have agreed to match us dollar for dollar and therefore $40,000,000 will be available in Texas for the next two years to be used to feed those unable to work, to rehabilitate those who have to change their occupations, and to assist in every way possible in providing jobs for those unable to secure employment. This is the total amount that could be used and only such part will be used as will be necessary to meet the emergency confronting the country.

The Legislature of Texas has a final check on the Relief Agencies and controls the amount of bonds to be used according to the needs that may arise. It was necessary to submit the entire amount of bonds to the people at this time since under our Constitution amendments thereto can only be submitted at the regular session and there will not be another regular session of the Legislature until 1935. It is earnestly to be hoped that the Legislature will not have to issue the full amount of the bonds and that conditions will so improve that it will be unnecessary, but on account of the special limitations of our constitution this is the only relief that is available to our distressed people without levying exhorbitant taxes that would be burdensome to bear at this time. Bond issues are always repugnant to the people, but this "War Against Depression" is a very real war and must be won at any cost to preserve the Democratic government which we so much revere.

When we engage in war we can not always be particular about the weapons we use. At this time the "bond issue" is the only way out. More than a million Texans are on the relief rolls and while this group is probably short of poll tax receipts and as a mass cannot vote, yet they are in most instances worthy people who are not responsible for the economic slough through which we are passing. We must weed out the relief rolls of those able to feed themselves, provide work for those where we are able to do so, and see that the rest have food and shelter. A civilized nation can do no less; a far-sighted people believing in individual property rights cannot afford to do otherwise.

I appeal to all our people to go to the polls and support this relief measure and pledge you my best efforts to see that the proper safeguards are thrown around the dispensation of whatever aid is necessary this winter and the next year.

Sincerely yours,
JULIAN P. GREER,
State Senator, Sixth District of Texas.

NRA DRIVE

writing and in affidavit form it was reported.

Jester Heads Committee.

The committee is composed of Beauford H. Jester, chairman; J. N. Edens, I. N. Cerf, W. P. McCammon, and F. W. Smith.

This group will also receive signed complaints on violations of the president's agreement of special codes.

Following the receipt of a final ruling on the status of commission employees Thursday, meetings of the barbers and beauticians of Corsicana were reported scheduled immediately.

The following is a digest of the most recent ruling received from official branches of the government (PRA standing for President's Reemployment Agreement):

Those employees who are partially or solely on commission basis must be guaranteed the minimum wage.

The following employees governed by the President's agreement, or codes accepted for substitution, and being paid on commission, must be guaranteed the minimum wage specified in the P.R.A. or the code which covers their type of work. The employer must make up to the employees the difference, if any between the commissions earned and the minimum wage to which he is entitled:

Clerks in stores (see retail codes, grocery code, etc.).

Curb service girls and boys—(must be over 16—see paragraph 1 of PRA and must receive the minimum hourly rate as specified in the restaurant substitution exclusive of tips).

Boot blacks (see paragraph 2, PRA. They must be guaranteed a sum equal to the minimum inclusive of tips).

Gas Station attendants (see paragraph 2 of PRA).

Barbecue and hot dog stand employees (see restaurant code. Tips not a part of their minimum compensation).

Taxicab drivers (see paragraph 2 PRA if not owners of their own cabs).

Barber's Code.

Barbers and beauticians (see barber and beauty shop code for hours and paragraph 5 of PRA for wages).

Garage mechanics (see paragraph 3 PRA, clerks, pump attendants and car delivery men under paragraph 2).

If the above employees are part-time they must receive the proportionate part of the minimum wage.

The restaurant industry was allowed to substitute, as one of the provisions of the P.R.A., the following section of their code, Article IV, Section VIII:

The minimum rates of wages established in Section VI shall be subjected to deduction for meals furnished employees at the rate of 25 cents per meal, not to exceed $3.00 total in any one week. Gratuities shall not be considered a part of the remuneration of any employee.

SEARCH FOR "TWO DEAD MEN" PROVES TO BE UNAVAILING

"There are two dead men out six and one-half miles from town on the Corbet-Corsicana road," a voice advised J. M. Westbrook, deputy sheriff, Thursday morning at 5 o'clock.

The officer dressed hurriedly and sped to the scene of the supposed two dead men, ready to inaugurated an investigation.

No bodies any anything else of a susppicious nature was discovered in that section and investigation in the neighborhood failed to disclose any clues.

It was presumed by officers that two men probably had partaken of "refreshments" too freely and after the person had telephoned the officer, "awoke" and left the highway.

AUTOS AND COAL

their way out of the industrial control fold.

Official opinion, supported by first trade reactions, leaned to the view that both industries, like steel before them, would take the codes readily enough and then seek to work out their "open shop" policies with the employës at home. But the phrase "open shop" had been ejected by the NRA together with the companion "closed shop" as words which "cannot be written into the law."

This was done in an official statement, signed jointly by Administrator Hugh S. Johnson and his general counsel Donald Richberg, which stated that the industrial law's grant to labor or the "right to organize and bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing" cannot be "circumscribed, affected or foreclosed by anyone writing his own interpretation into any code or agreement."

Has Green's Approval.

This statement was said to have the official approval of William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, and Dr. Leo Wolman, chairman of NRA's labor advisory board of which Green also is a member.

The interpretation brought expressions of satisfaction also from some employers, although there was no immediate promise that it would clear the road to immediate acceptance of codes. In coal, particularly, the minimum wage question remained acute; so was the demand of the United Mine Workers for insertion of a "check off" provisions by which union dues are deducted from pay envelopes when the workers get them.

For automobiles the situation appeared smoother. There was a possibility that once the industrialists were reconciled to scrapping their demand for open shop the agreement could be hastened to President Roosevelt for promulgation.

Appeals to Confidence.

In an address to the Nation last night, Johnson mainly appealed to confidence as the one sure restorer of prosperity. He reported more than a million and a half voluntary blue eagle agreements have been signed, that they continue to pour in at a million a month rate, while "practically the whole of American industry and commerce have submitted codes for public hearings."

For days the open shop question had kept in a state of suspense negotiations to get the coal and auto codes done. The recovery machine had pushed and today continued to push its march in other directions, with the hearings on the retail trade and others, and with the completion of plans for next week's national drive to put across the [illegible] re-employment objective [illegible] blue eagle campaign.

MODEST GIANT, IN HIGH PLACE, "LOST HIS HEAD"--AND THRONE *

What Has Happened to Contemporary Athletes Is But Repetition of Case of Saul, Israel's First King----Big Men Who Get Above the Law.

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS

[illegible] WILLIAM T. ELLIS

[illegible]ppened one day, while trav[illegible] in Palestine, that I was [illegible]nt at Beisan when the Uni[illegible]ity of Pennsylvania archaeolog[illegible] completely uncovered the altar of Ashtaroh, one the many-layered temple site where once had hung the armor of dead and dismembered Saul, while his body had been displayed on the walls of the city. That hour was a vivid one. The intervening centuries seemed to have rolled away, and I saw the tragic end of the first king of Israel; who had been big when he was littlest in his own eyes, and little when he had been biggest in self-esteem. On this spot where I stood had been enacted the fulfilment of Samuel's prophecy. Saul lived and died before my eyes that day at Besian, the ancient city of Beth-Shan.

Saul's story is one of high romance; if disillusionment; of stupid vanity and of tragic defeat. Readers of the sporting pages can name present-day parallels to it. Men are lifted to sudden fame; they lose their heads, beciuse they think they are above the law; and end in rejection and misery. In even greater number, the war-rich millionaires have run the same gamut. The story of Saul is as old as the human race. Men have got "too big for their boots;" have recognized no law but their own selfishness, and have ended in a smash.

A Giant Country Youth.

As I stood by that old mud-brick altar at Beisan, I recalled the Bible's picture of the call of Saul—one of the many absorbing stories that crowd this book of Samuel. He had gone off from the home farm in search of three straying asses. Failing to find them, he sought the counsel of Samuel, the man of God. Then it was revealed to the prophet that this unsophisticated, unspoiled young countryman who stood head and shoulders above his fellows, was to be the first king of Israel. A choice and goodly youth he was. "every inch a king." Samuel gave him a feast, and the next day anointed him to be king—despite Saul's protestations of his own unworthiness. In those days of his real merit Saul was little in his own eyes.

Followed the national assembly at Mizpah, to choose a king. The lot fell on Saul; who had to be sought and dragged out from amongst the baggage, where he had hidden himself in modesty. When the people saw the handsome giant they gave vent to th shout which has been heard a million times since—"Long Live the king!"

A King At Last.

So the nation at last had a king, and "a big man" at that. But he was never again so big as at the beginning. The huzzas, the pomp and power, quickly went to [illegible] young king's head. He did some [illegible]iant fighting and won great [illegible]ctories; but his vanity grew faster than his achievements. Indeed, before the end, this ingrowing egotism turned to real madness and melancholia. The strain of pettiness—most dramatically revealed by his jealousy and persecution of David—came to be the master motive of his life.

Few men can stand sudden and spectacular success. There are not many Lindberghs in the records. Lie Saul, most go to pieces with the access of fame and power. Man stands adversity better than he does prosperity.

And no man is great enough to be trusted with autocratic power over his fellow men. There is not a dictator on earth today who has not misued his absolute authority.

In Days of Valor.

We must be fair to Saul. At first he behaved royally. When he heard that the Ammonites had threatened to put out the right eyes of the men of Jabesh-Gilead, "the Spirit of God came upon Saul . . . and his anger was kindled greatly." Indigantion against injustice to others than one's self is the proof of a noble soul. Saul sent a stern summons to the people to rally to the defense of their brethren. There was a swift battle, and the Ammonites were utterly routed. A great religious celebration of that victory was held, under the leadership of Samuel.

But, "presumptuous sins," from which the Psalmist prayed to be delivered, took hold of Saul. He even dared to officate as priest, at a national sacrifice, which was the beginning of his end. Steadily his egotism swelled, until it threatened the death of his own son Jonathan, because of an innocent trespass. It took something like a national rebellion to save the beloved prince.

Up Against Amelekites.

War was the order of the day throughout Saul's reign. His greatest victory became the occasion of his doom. Samuel transmited to him Jehovah's orders to exterminate the Amalekites, those ancient foes of Israel, in the south of Canaan and in Cinai. In the modern view the orders were cruel, for they decreed the death of every living Amalekite, and of all his sheep and oxens, camels and asses.

It was with a great army with which Saul entered upon the decisive war against Amalek. The fighting raged clear down to the borders of Egypt, with a decisive victory for Israel. But the king, Agag, was captured and not slain, for Saul wanted to exhibit him in triumph, and the choicest of the spoils were spared, contrary to the orders of Jehovah.

The Great Reckoning.

In a narrative of rare dramatic [illegible]rest, we have the story of [illegible]l's meeting with Samuel after [illegible]e battle. The king was fulsome and condescending and reported that he had carried out the divine commands.

"What meant, then, this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of oxen which I hear?" replied the prophet inexorably.

Saul had been "caught with the goods." There was no hiding this evidence that he had disobeyed orders to destroy utterly the livestock of the Amalekites. But he made a pious preense that he had reserved them for sacrifice; so easy is it to attribute good motives to our own bad acts. Pressed, Saul blamed the saving of the sheep and oxen upon the people—as if he were not both king and general in supreme command.

Then doom fell. In awesome words Samuel decreed, "Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams . . . Because thou hast rejected the word of Jehovah, he hath also rejected thee from being king."

The Dismal End.

So fairly begun, to soon and tragically ended was the house of Saul,. The self-inflated balloon of egotism had to burst. When anybody sets himself up as greater than the laws of God,, his doom is written.

Many rich men have built churches and erected monuments nad established institutions of learning and benevolence, as a cloak or penance for wealth got at the price of justice. But there is no substitute for obedience. Not all the sacrifices that Saul can make can take the place of simple conformity to the law.

Outwardly king, inwardly miserable and accursed, Saul carried on for years. However, like a man stricken with a deadly disease, who knows it, he carried with him the consciousness of his sentence. He knew what he might have been; and he knew to what his pride and selfishness and disobedience had brought him. The moral of Saul's career is told in the lines of Kipling's Jungle Book:

"These are the laws of the jungle,
many and mighty, are they;
But the head and the haunch, the hump and the hoof, is—obey."

People Urged to Plant Gardens For Fall Production

People of Navarro county are urged to plant fall gardens in order to have an adequate food supply for their home use and to live better during the fall and winter by Miss Ruth McNabb, county home demonstration agent.

Four important points in making fall gardens are outlined by the county agent as follows:

1. Provide shade for plants to be set out. For starting the slow maturing vegetables such as tomatoes peppers ,and the like, artificial shade may be provided by driving a few stakes in the ground, connecting these with hay wire, and spreading oat or bran sacks over the top. The cover should be 3 to 4 feet from the ground.

2. Do not turn under the weeds. Conserve moisture in order to get the vegetables up. The ground should be free of all weeds and plants that are left from the summer garden.

The soil for the fall garden should be plowed shallow to a depth of 4 or 5 inches, or be thoroughly disced. Immediately following the breaking of the soil it should be harrowed and then the seedbed made as firm as possible to re-establish capillary attraction of the soil particles and to bring the moisture, if possible to within 1 1-2 to 2 inches of the surface.

3. Winter plants need fertilizer. After the garden has been plowed spread a coating 1 to 3 inches thick of "summer manure' over the surface. Then break or disc and harrow until the "summer manure" is well mixed into the soil. This spongy material will greatly increase the water holding capacity of the soil and prevent packing.

4. Good seed are cheapest. Secure one-fourth more seed for fall planting than for spring gardens. The germination of seed at this season is poor; consequently the extra quantity of seed will ordinarily be necessary to secure a good stand.

Richland Made Clean Sweep of Series With Home League Stars

RICHLAND, Aug. 23.—(Spl.)—Richland made a clean swep of their three game series with the Home League All Stars by winning the game here Sunday, 8-0. Every member of the Richland nine touched Copeland for at least one safety.

Harris held the visitors to 4 hits. He also deserves special mention for his hit in the 4th inning. After warning the Al Star infield that he is going to beat out an infield hit, he does that very thing, much to the surprise of all on-lookers.

Gandhi Wins His Release and Fast Was Broken Today

POONA, India, Aug. 23.—(AP)—The Mahatma Gandhi broke his fast, which was in its eighth day, shortly after he had been unconditionally ,released from custody today by the government.

The frail nationalist leader began his fast in protest against the government's refusal to grant him privileges to carry on his campaign in behalf of the untouchable class.

Because he steadily was growing weaker, he was removed to the Civic hospital recently from Yeroda jail, where he had been serving a one-year sentence for civil disobedience.

Immediately after his release, Gandhi was taken in an ambulance to the villa of Lady Vittal Da Thackersey, where he fasted for three weeks in May in behalf of the untouchables, the lowest class.

GOVERNMENT READY TO SWAP DOLLARS FOR 5,000,000 HOGS

PLAN TO REDUCE NATION'S MEAT SUPPLY EXPECTED COST $35,000,000

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Uncle Sam was prepared today to swap dollars for hogs in an effort to reduce a troublesome surplus and raise farm prices in the cornbelt and other pork producing regions.

Tomorrow he will open his pocketbook to buy up to 5,000,000 pigs and a million sows at six midwest stockyards—Chicago, Kansas City, Omaha, St. Paul, Minn., Sioux City, and St. Joseph, Mo. By Monday purchasing will get underway at other markets. Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace in announcing the plan here last week said it was expected to cost about $55,000,000 and to be paid for by a processing tax on pork products beginning Oct. 1.

The hope is to eliminate the fall crop of pork and farmers willing to sell sows due to farrow will receive the market price plus a flat premium of $4 a head. By not making usual market deductions on sows, the farmer will benefit another dollar or so, representatives of the agricultural adjustment administration said. The premium for pigs will amount to $2 to $4 a hundred pounds.

"Farmers can sell through their usual channels," said G. B. Thorn, field representative of the administration's corn and hog section. "At the yards the hogs will be weighed under supervision of a government inspector who will see that no runts were included, and that the hogs meet the other specifications. They will then be turned over to the packers who have contracted with the government to slaughter the hogs."

Vigilance will be maintained to see that speculators do not mix very light and very heavy pigs to obtain a favorable average. The big deal is aimed at pigs of from 25 to 100 pounds and sows weighing at least 275 pounds due to farrow soon. The south will receive $3 less a hundredweight for its range stock than will be paid for the midwest's corn fed stock.

Price Schedule

With Chicago the base market the following prices were announced under the plan there:

| Weight of pigs. | Per 100 pounds. |
|---|---|
| 25 to 30 pounds | $9.50 |
| 31 to 35 pounds | 8.25 |
| 36 to 40 pounds | 9.00 |
| 41 to 45 pounds | 8.75 |
| 46 to 50 pounds | 8.50 |
| 51 to 55 pounds | 8.25 |
| 56 to 60 pounds | 8.00 |
| 61 to 65 pounds | 7.75 |

With a decrease of 25 cents per hundredweight for each successive five pounds in weight, the largest pigs, weighing 96 to 100 pounds, will bring $6.00.

Pigs will command 40 cents more per hundredweight at Chicago because of the heavier hauling costs.

Ranger Is Found Fatally Shot In Kilgore District

KILGOGRE, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Oran Biggs, special ranger and investigator for the Humble Company, was found wounded fatally early today at an oil company plant at Pistol Hill near Kilgore.

A bullet from a pistol had struck him under the chin and penetrated the brain. W. H. Compton, justice of the peace, held death was due to a self-inflicted wound.

Biggs, a former sheriff at Albany, Texas, and former jailer of Gregg county at Longview, had been stationed at Gladewater but came to Pistol Hill last night. He walked 75 yards to a bath house after the bullet struck him. He had turned on two faucets and apparently had attempted to wash away blood.

CALVERT URGES 20 MILLION BONDS FOR UNEMPLOYED

PEOPLE CANNOT AFFORD TO DEFEAT AMENDMENT, SAYS REPRESENTATIVE

The following statement from R. W. Calvert, representative 60th district, favoring the $20,000,000 issue has been received by the Daily Sun:

Some interested citizens of Navarro county have asked me for my views relative to the constitutional amendment to be voted on on August 26th providing for the issuance of Twenty Million Dollars of bonds for the relief of the needy and unemployed in Texas. Accordingly, I gladly make this statement:

This amendment is one that, in my opinion, the people of Texas cannot afford to defeat. It is estimated that there are 1,250,000 people in Texas dependent upon funds being distributed by the government for their food and clothing. The federal government which is expending near two million dollars in Texas each month for this purpose has definitely threatened to withdraw this aid unless this State makes some provision for aiding in the movement. The amendment provides for the issuance of not to exceed $20,000,000.00 of bonds. It positively provides that no more than this can be issued. It further provides that the bill in which the Legislature may exercise the authority given shall be limited to two years at the end of which time the power to issue bonds expires. The amendment further provides that the interest and redemption of the bonds shall be provided for from some other source than a tax on real property.

With these safe guards thrown around the authority of the legislature and in the name of humanity, it is my opinion that this amendment ought to be adopted by the people of this State.

R. W. CALVERT,
Representative 60th District.

Black-Draught

Clears Up Sluggish Feeling

"I have used Thedford's Black-Draught for constipation for a long time," writes Mrs. Frank Champion, of Wynne, Ark.

"If I get up in the morning feeling dull and sluggish, a dose of Black-Draught taken three times a day will cause the feeling to pass away, and in a day or two I feel like a new person. After many years of use we would not exchange Black-Draught for any medicine."

P. S.—If you have CHILDREN, give them the new, pleasant-tasting SYRUP of Thedford's Black-Draught.

MEMBER, THE ORDER OF THE GOLDEN RULE

SERVICE MEASURED NOT BY GOLD BUT BY THE GOLDEN RULE

For The SECOND YEAR!

We have again been accepted for fellowship in one of our profession's best known groups. For the second time we have been appointed as members of the Order of the Golden Rule in this community.

The Order accepts but one funeral directing organization in each community. That organization must subscribe to a Creed which outlines the high ethical standards of the Order and its members.

It is not difficult to understand, therefore, why we are gratified that our symbol shows two service stars, in token of our second year of affiliation with the Order.

If your elephant wants to ride on top

IT'S ALL RIGHT WITH A CHEVROLET

CHEVROLET We didn't actually plan on elephants when we chose the bodies for the new Chevrolet. But we did choose bodies rigid enough, and strong enough, to support six tons of elephant or anything else you can name. Fisher bodies . . . steel bodies plus a hardwood frame . . . exactly the same type of bodies used on all 12 and 16-cylinder cars. Steel alone is not enough to make you as safe and secure as we want you to be in a Chevrolet. A steel body, welded into a solid wall of protection plus resilient hardwood reinforcing to take up stress, absorb shocks and prevent the steel from following its natural tendency to buckle under pressure makes the sturdiest body of all—the kind used on the Chevrolet, and on no other low-priced car. Remember that when you buy a car. Be sure to get all you pay for . . . the super-safety of a steel-plus-wood Fisher body.

ELECTION DAY

"Election day in Texas comes Saturday," observes Peter Molyneaux, editor and publisher of The Texas Weekly, in a recent issue of his publication and continues: "On that day the people of Texas will authorize the ratification of the proposed amendment repealing the Eighteenth Amendment to the Federal Constitution by voting for delegates pledged to such ratification. There is no doubt about that. They will also vote in favor of an amendment to the State Constitution authorizing the manufacture and sale of 3.2 per cent beer in Texas.

"We hope also that they will vote for the three other amendments to the State Constitution which will be submitted at the election. Especially do we hope that they will adopt the amendment authorizing the Legislature to issue bonds for the relief of the destitute in an amount not to exceed $20,000,000. This is necessary in order to continue to receive Federal funds for such relief. In ordinary circumstances we would oppose any measure of this kind, both because we do not like to see the habit started of having the State Government issue bonds and because we do not regard the relieving of the destitute to be proper state function.

"But the circumstances are not ordinary.

"On the contrary they are unprecedented.

"There are more than a million people in Texas—men, women and children—who have no other means of support than that which is now provided by Federal funds. There is no prospect that the breadwinners among them will be provided with employment during the coming winter, in spite of the improved outlook which the National Recovery campaign is creating, and if this bond issue fails a very critical situation will result.

"We appreciate the force of all that may be said against the amendment, and particularly we appreciate the force of the argument to the effect that it creates a dangerous precedent. But we have been compelled by a contemplation of the alternative to resolve all doubts in its favor. The great bulk of the people who are dependent on public relief are in that condition through no fault of their own. They are people who do not relish living on charity and who will take the first opportunity to escape from it when employment is available.

"But meantime the obligation to see that they and their families do not suffer rests upon the community as a whole. These people are in all sections of the state, and the State Government is the only agency that can insure beyond doubt that they do not suffer. The proposed bond issue offers the only way in which the needed funds can be provided. That is why it should be adopted."

Mr. Molyneaux has stated the situation clearly and should any contemplate voting against the bond issue serious consideration should be given the local situation before that ballot is cast. Everyone knows the communities cannot take care of their unemployed without Federal aid and as the Texas Weekly Editor says: "The proposed bond issue offers the only way in which the needed funds can be provided."

The self-made man often is a product for which nobody else wants the credit.

SONG OF CONSOLATION FOR POOR GOLFERS

Golf is an art, a timely knack
Which few possess and many lack.
Nor all the tutoring with the clubs
Can fashion experts out of dubs.
So cease to frown
And write it down
If hook or slice your trouble be.
In all you know
Of golfing woe
You've always excellent company.

Though Mussolini may be great,
He cannot drive a golf ball straight.
And I will bet that England's king
Has never learned the golfing swing.
So for the dubs
Of all the clubs
This one consoling line I pen,
Who's born so weak
That he must peek,
Looks up with countless gentlemen.

In vain it is to curse and rage.
The game has baffled many a sage
And many an eloquent divine
Can't keep a golf ball on the line.
Tough brassie lies
Perplex the wise,
So when you err with game at stake
Part with your pelf
Then tell yourself
Few great men ninety ever break.

IT HAS "TEETH."

Rumors of arbitrary action by the federal government in connection with enforcement of the national industrial recovery act already are beginning to appear in various places. They include the sudden closing of plants or threats to close them because of failure of the managing authorities to comply with the provisions of the act.

It is well for the public to have a correct understanding of this emergency industrial law which was enacted to remain in effect until June 1, 1934. The act has real teeth in it, both jail sentences and fines being included among the penalties which may be inflicted on its violators.

The blanket code recently has claimed chief attention in connection with the placing of the law in effect. This, it should be remembered, is temporary and voluntary. The act calls for the formuation of codes by the different industries. Because of the time required for this to be done, however, the president proposed the adoption of a banket code which woud remain effective until the individual codes had been approved. Formulation of the latter, meanwhile, is proceeding.

It is in connection with enforcement of the individual codes that the punitive provisions of the act apply. The carying out of these does not rest on voluntary co-operation. After a trade association code has been submitted and approved by the government, members of the association become subject to the penalties provided in the industrial act for violation of codes affecting interstate or foreign commerce. An alleged violator may be hailed into federal court, and, if convicted, he is subject to a fine of $500 for each offense, with each day that such violation continues being deemed a separate offense.

Another weapon is provided the government through the licensing provision of the act. Should any activities destructive to the emergency law's policy develop in any trade or industry, authority is given the president to require every person or concern engaged in that particular line to cease operating or obtain a license from the national recovery administration. The penalty for failure to do this is $500 fine or six months' imprisonment or both, each day of continued violation here, likewise, being deemed a separate offense.

Whatever may be the individual or popular feeling toward the act as it now stands, it is the law. Compliance with it becomes the duty of all whom it may affect. The co-operation being given the government by industry in carrying it out is a pleasing development. It is not a voluntary movement, though, as individuals or corporations who may seek to violate it will find out.

In Portugal, we are told, children are fined instead of being whipped when they misbehave in school. What happens to them when they get home and the parents have to dig up an amount ranging from one cent to $12 we are not informed.

MEETING A KIDNAP THREAT

New Hampshire is treating a kidnaping threat in a manner that will discourage kidnaping and disarm the kidnaper if anything will. The crime is treated there as its enormity demands.

With swift and dramatic action the New Hampshire authorities sent a force of national guardsmen, sheriffs and state police to surround a girls' camp when a kidnaping threat was made against one of the campers. If the threat was real, it was thwarted in a way that confounded the criminals.

Kidnaping will not be wiped out until the constituted authorities show a grim and angry determination to fight this type of criminal with every resource at their command. It doesn't require some brilliant new technique.

Knowing that it can count upon the help of society, the new law should not find it difficult to find the lair of a kidnaping gang, especially when it is some mountain recess or farmhouse. Posses sufficiently large to scour every foot of ground for hundreds of miles are not impossible when the people are aroused. The guilty are certain to attract suspicion at a time when everybody is under suspicion.

There is no more effective weapon against the kidnaper than newspaper publicity. It makes all the world a posse and an amateur detective. The alarm cannot be given too soon, nor can it be given too much prominence on the front page.

SADISM.

Sadism creeps into everyday affairs of even this age, which is so often chided for its maudlin sentimentality and excess of compassion for the malefactor against society. There may be some foundation for these charges, but humanity has never entirely lost its old love to torture and torment and punish.

The religion of some is sadistic. There is a sadistic element in prohibition and its enforcement for a certain type of "drys" which accounts for his religious zeal on the subject.

Another form commonly taken by the sadistic instinct in us has to do with placing responsibility for disasters involving the public.

When a ship sinks with loss of life, or prisoners perish in a burning prison, or a transport plane crashes, killing all on board, or a bridge collapses, or trains collide, or a mine explosion takes life; at all such times the public demands that somebody be punished, that others suffer for the sufferings of the victims and their families.

Where disasters are avoidable the negligent suffer the agonies of guilt and remorse, and the accidents in themselves act as a deterrent on others who might be guilty of equal negligence, so this modern manifestation of sadism cannot be so vindicated and is not to be thus explained away.

The spirit of the Inquisition still survives, manifesting itself more in some than in others but apparently present in all of us in some degree.

A COMMENDABLE AIM.

The advantages to be gained from a uniform motor act are too apparent to need argument.

For years there has been agitation along this line and some active efforts have been put forth to obtain such an act. Little progress, however, has been made, due to a variety of causes.

The American Legislators association now has put its hand to the task. It has announced that two regional conferences representing 28 states will be held this fall to promote the plan. One of the conference will be held in Salt Lake City. It will be sponsored by the Utah legislature and the legislators association. Represented in it will be 11 western states. Harrisburg, Pa., will be the scene of the other conference, in which 17 northeastern states will be represented.

If these conferences prove successful, it is to be hoped the remainder of the states will join the movement. At present there are 49 different sets of motor vehicle regulations, there being one for each state and one for the District of Columbia. This condition causes confusion and annoyance.

The American Legislators association is composed of members of legislatures of the various sates. In tackling the uniform motor act problem, it is undertaking a work of nationwide interest. Should it succceed in its purpose, it would have rendered a service of major importance to the country as a whole.

RELIVING THE DAYS OF '76

Deadwood, S. D., has just been celebrating the fifty-seventh anniversary of its founding. And what a founding it was! The imagination could not conceive of a more picturesque, dramatic or romantic theme for an historical pageant.

The "Days of '76" do not seem so remote to the effete East, which was already settled and civitized 57 years ago, but in Deadwood they were wild and woolly. Some of the most absorbing history of the Wild West was lived there, and though it was hurried and recent it is read with more interest than much earlier history.

Deadwood is proud of its history — two-gun men, gamblers, bandits, dance-hall girls, and all—although it was Deadwood, which, upon attaining the age of respectability, finally cleared its streets and resorts of that colorful cavalcade. Deadwood will never cease reminiscing about "Wild Bill" Hickock, Poker Alice and Calamity Jane, and the outside world will never weary of the "westerns" dramatizing for the screen the lives of Deadwood's prospectors, placer miners, cavalrymen, Indians and lawless element.

Men still die with their boots on and men still risk everything for gold, but somehow the heroes heroines and villians of Deadwood did it differently. With them it was an adventure, not a racket.

PIONEER NAVARRO COUNTY COUPLE IN REUNION OF FAMILY

MR. AND MRS. G. W. SPEED HAVE RESIDED IN COUNTY FIFTY-SEVEN YEARS

With all of their children present for the occasion Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Speed enjoyed a family reunion at their home recently in Kerens, Navarro county, where they have resided for the past thirty-three years. The couple has resided in Navarro county for fifty-seven years, arriving in this section February 1876, coming in ox wagons from Mississippi. The couple is said to be among the oldest pioneer residents of the county.

Mr. Speed is now 87 years of age, enjoying excellent health and is actively engaged in looking after his farming interests. His wife is now past 80 years and is said by her friends to be the youngest woman in the county at anywhere near that age." The happy couple will celebrate their sixty-fourth wedding anniversary December 1, this year. They have many relatives and friends scattered in every part of the United States.

With them for the family reunion were their twelve children—six boys and six girls. They are the parents of seventeen children. Fourteen lived to be grown and married. Twelve children are now living. Among the children attending the reunion were the Rev. John B. Speed and wife and son of Torance, Calif., where Rev. Speed is pastor of the Baptist church; Mrs. E. C. Bain and daughter of Kenedy, Tex.; Mrs. John Hayes and two children of Cameron, Tex.; and many other grand children and great grandchildren from all over the country.

Mr. Speed and family settled near where old Blooming Grove is located upon his arrival in this country. He made his first stop at Mill creek, then to Cryer Creek, in 1879 where his first children started to school. In 1882 he moved to Black Hills where he resided until the late fall of 1899 after which he moved to Kerens where he has resided continuously in the original home he built. All of the fourteen children reaching manhood and womanhood attended school some time and place in Navarro county where the schoolmaster of Mr. Speed's time, Tom Smith, taught.

Mr. and Mrs. Speed at all times have been active in the affairs of the community and have been especially identified with church and school activities. Even at their advanced age the couple continue to take part in this work. Their youngest child is 38 years and the oldest is 62.

The children coming to the reunion from a distance have all returned to their respective homes.

Finch Club Met In An Interesting Session August 11

The ladies of the Finch club met at the home of Mrs. Musa Tarrer August 11. Refreshments were enjoyed at the close of the meeting.

The president urged each member to fill out her card on food conservation and get it to her as quickly as possible, as that information had been asked for by the council secretary, Mrs. Owen of Emhouse.

The value of a home demonstration agent was discussed at this meeting, and it was decided that through the influence, co-operation and the superior teachings of our agent, Miss Ruth McNabb, that each family who has taken advantage of the club work and the use of the canning equipment is prepared or is preparing to live 100 per cent cheaper and 100 per cent better this winter as compared to the living conditions of last winter.

Many families of this community have not been reached by the club as they have had nothing to can, due to the dry weather. But many people of this community are still trying, fall gardens are being planned and planted.

Miss McNabb will meet with us August 25 at the home of Mrs. Musa Tarrer, to give a demonstration on sub-irrigation. We hope to have a large crowd of interested people come and learn how to defy "Old Man Drought."—Reporter.

What the Blue Eagle means to you and how you can get it

The President's Reemployment Program is advancing to complete success. No such sweeping demonstration of the unity of a whole people against a national danger has ever been made. • In this vast surge of patriotism it is necessary to keep our common purpose always clear. When 125,000,000 people attempt to act as one man there are sure to be some misunderstandings. It is time to restate as clearly as possible the aim of the whole endeavor and the duty of each individual. • That is the purpose of this message—to state officially, briefly and clearly the simple rules for common guidance. • It is an evidence of the self-sacrificing service of the whole country that this newspaper has donated this space. In that spirit the whole country is acting. • This plan depends wholly on united action. That unity is almost complete. In the next few days let us close up every gap in the ranks and nail the flag of the Blue Eagle on the door of every man who works another man. Hugh S. Johnson

OFFICIAL EXPLANATION OF THE PRESIDENT'S REEMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

(Sometimes miscalled "The Blanket Code")

This Agreement binds you to put its terms into effect from the time you sign the Certificate of Compliance until December 31, 1933; but when the President has approved a Code for your trade or industry, that Code takes the place of this Agreement.

You agree:

Child Labor

(1) After August 31, 1933, not to employ any person under 16 years of age, except that persons between 14 and 16 may be employed (but not in manufacturing or mechanical industries) for not to exceed 3 hours per day and those hours between 7 A. M. and 7 P. M. in such work as will not interfere with hours of day school.

This means that after August 31, 1933, you agree not to employ any children under 14 years old in any kind of business. You may employ children between 14 and 16 years old, but only for three hours a day and those hours must be between 7 in the morning and 7 at night, and arranged so as not to interfere with school. You agree not to employ any children under 16 years old in a manufacturing or mechanical industry, at any time.

Maximum Hours

(2) Not to work any accounting, clerical, banking, office, service, or sales employees (except outside salesmen) in any store, office, department, establishment, or public utility, or on any automotive or horse-drawn passenger, express, delivery, or freight service, or in any other place or manner, for more than 40 hours in any 1 week and not to reduce the hours of any store or service operation to below 52 hours in any 1 week, unless such hours were less than 52 hours per week before July 1, 1933, and in the latter case not to reduce such hours at all.

This means that you agree not to work any of the kinds of employees listed in this paragraph (except outside salesmen) for more than 40 hours a week. This paragraph covers all employees except factory workers, mechanical workers and artisans. However, no limit on hours and no minimum wage applies to purely agricultural labor, domestic servants, or persons working for you solely on a commission basis; but, if you have persons working for you who are guaranteed a base pay in addition to their commission, then their base pay plus commissions must equal the minimum wage.

This Agreement sets no maximum on the number of hours you may keep your business open. You agree not to keep your wholesale, retail, or service establishment open less than 52 hours a week unless it was open less than 52 hours a week before July 1, 1933. Even then you agree to keep it open as long as you used to keep it open before July 1. Of course, if you have always kept your store open shorter hours in the Summer months you can continue to do so this Summer, but you should pay your employees the same amount each week that they will get when you keep your store open full time.

The stores with more than two employees which remain open the longest are contributing the most to carrying out the purpose of the Agreement. The stores with two or less employees which can be open only the minimum number of hours required, are doing the most to fulfill their part.

(3) Not to employ any factory or mechanical worker or artisan more than a maximum week of 35 hours until December 31, 1933, but with the right to work a maximum week of 40 hours for any 6 weeks within this period; and not to employ any worker more than 8 hours in any one day.

This means that if you are employing factory or mechanical workers or artisans, you agree not to work them more than 35 hours a week and not more than 8 hours in any one day.

When you have more than the usual amount of work to do and can't get additional workers, you may employ this class of employee up to 40 hours a week in any 6 weeks, but even in this case you must not work them more than 8 hours a day.

(4) The maximum hours fixed in the foregoing paragraphs (2) and (3) shall not apply to employees in establishments employing not more than two persons in towns of less than 2,500 population which towns are not part of a larger trade area; nor to registered pharmacists or other professional persons employed in their profession nor to employees in a managerial or executive capacity, who now receive more than $35 per week; nor to employees on emergency maintenance and repair work; nor to very special cases where restrictions of hours of highly skilled workers on continuous processes would unavoidably reduce production but, in any such special case, at least time and one-third shall be paid for hours worked in excess of the maximum. Population for the purposes of this agreement shall be determined by reference to the 1930 Federal census.

This means that there are certain employees whom you may work longer hours than are allowed by paragraphs (2) and (3) P. R. A.

If your business is in a small town (population less than 2,500 by the 1930 census) and you do not employ more than two persons, the limit on hours does not apply to these employees. If your town is really a part of a larger business community, the limit on hours does apply to these employees.

The limit on hours does not apply to your employees who are wholly or primarily managers or executives, as long as they receive $35 a week. Professional persons like doctors, lawyers, registered pharmacists and nurses may be employed without any limit on hours.

Where employees are doing emergency jobs of maintenance or repair work, they may be kept on the job for longer hours, but you agree to pay them at least time and one-third for hours worked over the limits set in paragraphs (2) and (3) P. R. A.

There are a few very special cases where highly skilled workers must be allowed to work more than the limit of hours in order to keep up output on continuous processes, but, here again, you agree to pay them at least time and one-third for the hours they work over the limits set in paragraphs (2) and (3) P. R. A.

Minimum Wages

(5) Not to pay any of the classes of employees mentioned in paragraph (2) less than $15 per week in any city of over 500,000 population, or in the immediate trade area of such city; nor less than $14.50 per week in any city of between 250,000 and 500,000 population, or in the immediate trade area of such city; nor less than $14 per week in any city of between 2,500 and 250,000 population, or in the immediate trade area of such city and in towns of less than 2,500 population to increase all wages by not less than 20 per cent, provided that this shall not require wages in excess of $12 per week.

This sets out the schedule of minimum wages which you agree to pay all employees, except factory or mechanical workers or artisans. The wages are set out in terms of dollars per week, but if your employees are paid by the hour, you may use the following schedule:

| Place of Business: (Population by 1930 Census) | Minimum Wage: |
|---|---|
| In cities of 500,000 or over | 37½ cents per hour |
| In cities of between 250,000 and 500,000 | 36¼ cents per hour |
| In cities of between 2,500 and 250,000 | 35 cents per hour |

If your business is in a town of less than 2,500 population, you agree to raise all wages at least 20%. If raising all wages 20% causes you to pay over $12 per week, then you need only pay the $12 per week.

If there is any doubt in your mind as to whether your business is in the "immediate trade area" of a city, you should ask your local Chamber of Commerce or other similar organization for a decision on the matter. The general rule is that the "immediate trade area" is the area in which there is direct retail competition.

(6) Not to pay any employee of the classes mentioned in paragraph (3) less than 40 cents per hour unless the hourly rate for the same class of work on July 15, 1929, was less than 40 cents per hour, in which latter case not to pay less than the hourly rate on July 15, 1929, and in no event less than 30 cents per hour. It is agreed that this paragraph establishes a guaranteed minimum rate of pay regardless of whether the employee is compensated on the basis of a time rate or on a piece-work performance.

This fixes the minimum wage which you agree to pay factory and mechanical workers and artisans. The following schedule may help you to find out the proper rate:

| If the rate for the same kind of work in the same community on July 15, 1929, was: | The minimum rate which you agree to pay is: |
|---|---|
| More than 40c an hour | 40c an hour |
| 30c to 40c an hour | The July 15, 1929 hourly rate |
| Less than 30c an hour | 30c an hour |

Instead of paying by the hour, you may pay by the week at a rate which gives the same weekly earnings for a week of 35 hours. For example, instead of 40c an hour, you may pay $14 per week.

If you had a contract on or before August 1, 1933, with a learner or apprentice, you do not have to pay him the minimum wage, but no one should be classed as a learner or an apprentice who has ever been employed as a regular worker in your industry.

(7) Not to reduce the compensation for employment now in excess of the minimum wages hereby agreed to (notwithstanding that the hours worked in such employment may be hereby reduced) and to increase the pay for such employment by an equitable readjustment of all pay schedules.

Two official interpretations—No. 1 and No. 20—have been issued, explaining this paragraph. You can get copies of these at your local Chamber of Commerce or from the nearest N. R. A. representative.

Anti-Subterfuge

(8) Not to use any subterfuge to frustrate the spirit and intent of this Agreement which is, among other things, to increase employment by a universal covenant, to remove obstructions to commerce, and to shorten hours and to raise wages for the shorter week to a living basis.

This is the heart of the whole Agreement. The President's Plan is to cure this depression by increasing purchasing power. You can help him put this plan over by voluntarily signing this Agreement to shorten hours and raise wages. There is no force to compel you to sign this Agreement. It is not law. It is a personal agreement between you and the President. The President expects you to do everything in your power to carry out the spirit of the Agreement after you sign it. This means whole-hearted cooperation by really earning the Blue Eagle—not by just getting it and then not doing your part.

It would be a "subterfuge to frustrate the spirit and intent of this Agreement" to sign it and then put all of your employees on a straight commission basis—or any other trick to avoid doing what you promise to do.

Anti-Profiteering

(9) Not to increase the price of any merchandise sold after the date hereof over the price on July 1, 1933, by more than is made necessary by actual increases in production, replacement, or invoice costs of merchandise, or by taxes or other costs resulting from action taken pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act, since July 1, 1933, and, in setting such price increases, to give full weight to probable increases in sales volume and to refrain from taking profiteering advantage of the consuming public.

The object of this paragraph is to prevent profiteering or speculation, so that prices will not rise faster than purchasing power, and destroy the President's plan. The danger to be avoided was pointed out by the President on June 16, 1933, in the statement which he made on signing the Recovery Act. He said, then:

"If we now inflate prices as fast and as far as we increase wages, the whole project will be set at naught. We cannot hope for the full effect of this plan unless, in these first critical months, and, even at the expense of full initial profits, we defer price increases as long as possible. If we can thus start a strong, sound upward spiral of business activity our industries will have little doubt of black-ink operations in the last quarter of this year. The pent-up demand of this people is very great, and if we can release it on so broad a front, we need not fear a lagging recovery. There is greater danger of too much feverish speed."

If you were selling your merchandise on July 1, 1933, below cost, you may take your cost price on that date as the basis for determining the allowable increase under this paragraph.

Cooperation

(10) To support and patronize establishments which also have signed this Agreement and are listed as members of N. R. A. (National Recovery Administration).

The success of the President's Reemployment Agreement Program depends upon public support going to those who raise wages and shorten hours in accordance with this Agreement, in order to repay them for the extra expense which they have incurred in doing their part.

Codes

(11) To cooperate to the fullest extent in having a Code of Fair Competition submitted by his industry at the earliest possible date, and in any event before September 1, 1933.

This Agreement is a temporary measure to tide over the time from now until all employers and employees can cooperate under Codes of Fair Competition under the National Industrial Recovery Act. You agree, in this paragraph, to do all you can to have a Code submitted for your trade or industry before September 1, 1933.

Appropriate Adjustments

(12) Where, before June 16, 1933, the undersigned had contracted to purchase goods at a fixed price for delivery during the period of this Agreement, the undersigned will make an appropriate adjustment of said fixed price to meet any increase in cost caused by the seller having signed this President's Reemployment Agreement or having become bound by any Code of Fair Competition approved by the President.

This Agreement will, usually, increase the costs of those who sign it. The purpose of this paragraph is to pass any such increased costs along from one signer to another, and so on to the consumer.

If you have a contract made before June 16, 1933, to buy goods at a fixed price, you agree to make an arrangement with your seller so that you pay him for the extra cost to him caused by his having signed this Agreement, or having come under a Code approved by the President.

In some cases the final buyer is the Government, which, under existing law, is generally not allowed to pay more than the contract price. The President has announced that he will recommend to Congress that appropriations be made to allow the Government to play its part by paying Government contractors who have signed the Agreement for their increased costs. The President has also appealed to the States and cities to take action permitting them to do likewise.

You should have no fear that, because your buyer has not signed, you will be left with the increased cost on you alone. The President expects every employer to sign this Agreement.

Substitutions

(13) This Agreement shall cease upon approval by the President of a Code to which the undersigned is subject; or, if the N. R. A. so elects, upon submission of a Code to which the undersigned is subject and substitution of any of its provisions for any of the terms of this Agreement.

As pointed out in the explanation of paragraph (11) P. R. A. above, the President plans to have all business govern itself under Codes, and therefore Codes should be promptly submitted. If N. R. A. finds that the wages and hours provisions of a Code which has been submitted are within the spirit of this Agreement, N. R. A. will authorize your industry to operate under those provisions rather than under the wages and hours provisions of this Agreement.

Exceptions

(14) It is agreed that any person who wishes to do his part in the President's Reemployment Drive by signing this Agreement, but who asserts that some particular provision hereof, because of peculiar circumstances, will create great and unavoidable hardship, may obtain the benefits hereof by signing this Agreement and putting it into effect and then, in a petition approved by a trade association of his industry, or other representative organization designated by N. R. A., may apply for a stay of such provision pending a summary investigation by N. R. A., if he agrees in such application to abide by the decision of such investigation. This Agreement is entered into pursuant to section 4 (a) of the National Industrial Recovery Act and subject to all the terms and conditions required by sections 7 (a) and 10 (b) of that act.

If you really want to do your part in the President's Reemployment Program, sign this Agreement. If some particular part of this Agreement causes you, as an individual employer, great and unavoidable hardship, you may obtain relief by taking the steps outlined under the heading "Cases of Individual Hardship."

HOW TO GET THE BLUE EAGLE

1. Sign the President's Reemployment Agreement.
2. Mail the Signed Agreement to your District Office of the Department of Commerce.
3. Put the Agreement into Effect (as outlined above in "How to Earn the Blue Eagle").
4. Sign a Certificate of Compliance. This is a slip distributed with the Agreement. It says: "I/We certify that we have adjusted the hours of labor and the wages of our employees to accord with the President's Reemployment Agreement, which we have signed."
5. Deliver the Certificate of Compliance to Your Post Office. The Postmaster will give you your Blue Eagle.

EXCEPTIONAL CASES

1. Where a Code Has Been Submitted. (See paragraph 13, President's Reemployment Agreement). If your whole Trade or Industry is unable to live up to the President's Agreement, you should get together at once, with other employers in your Trade or Industry and, in a group, submit a Code of Fair Competition to N. R. A. in Washington.

Since it takes some time after a Code has been submitted for it to be finally approved, your group may petition N. R. A. to substitute the wages and hours provisions of your Code for the wages and hours provisions of the President's Reemployment Agreement.

If N. R. A. finds that the Code provisions are within the spirit of the President's Reemployment Agreement, it will consent to such substitutions. If N. R. A. does consent there will be an official notice in all the papers. You may then put the substituted provisions into effect in place of the indicated paragraphs of the President's Reemployment Agreement. In this case you should add to your Certificate of Compliance the following clause: "To the extent of N. R. A. consent as announced, we have complied with the President's Agreement by complying with the substituted provisions of the Code submitted by the ———— Trade/Industry."

If the substitution is consented to after you have already put the President's Reemployment Agreement into full effect, and after you have already gotten your Blue Eagle, you may still put the substituted provisions into effect without signing another Certificate of Compliance.

2. Where a Code Has Been Approved. If a Code of Fair Competition for your Trade or Industry has already been finally approved by the President, you need not sign the President's Reemployment Agreement in order to get the Blue Eagle. The same is true if you are subject to a Code which has been put into effect temporarily by agreement between the President and representatives of your Trade or Industry; but in either of these cases, you must sign a Certificate of Compliance, adding to it the following statement: "We have complied with the operative provisions of the Code for the —— Trade/Industry."

3. Cases of Individual Hardship. (Paragraph 14, President's Reemployment Agreement).

If there are some peculiar reasons why a particular provision of the President's Agreement will cause you, individually, a great and unavoidable hardship, you may still get the Blue Eagle by taking the following steps:

(a) Sign the Agreement and mail it to your District Office of the Department of Commerce.

(b) Prepare a petition to N. R. A. setting out the reasons why you cannot comply with certain provisions, and requesting that an exception be made in your case.

(c) Have this petition approved by your Trade Association. If there is no Trade Association for your business, have your petition approved by your local Chamber of Commerce or other representative organization designated by N. R. A.

(d) If the Trade Association, or other organization, approves your petition, send it to N. R. A. in Washington with this approval.

(e) Comply with all the provisions of the Agreement except the one you are petitioning to have excepted.

(f) Sign the Certificate of Compliance, adding to it the following clause: "Except for those interim provisions regarding wages and hours which have been approved by the ———— Trade Association." Deliver this Certificate of Compliance to your Post Office. You will receive a Blue Eagle, but before displaying it, you must put a white bar across its breast with the word "Provisional" on it. If your petition is finally approved by N. R. A. you may take the bar down. If your petition is not approved by N.R.A. you must comply with the Agreement in full.

4. Union Contracts. If you have a contract with a labor organization calling for longer hours than the President's Agreement allows, and this contract was made in good faith by collective bargaining and cannot be changed by you alone, try to get the labor organization to agree to a reduction to the maximum hours allowed by the President's Agreement. If the labor organization will not agree, you may apply to N. R. A. for permission to work your employees as many hours a week as the contract calls for. Send to N. R. A. a request for this permission, with a certified copy of the labor contract and any statement of fact you desire. This application will be handled by N. R. A. in the same manner as an application for relief in cases of individual hardship, filed under paragraph (14) P. R. A., but it will not be necessary to obtain the approval of a trade association or other organization. If N. R. A. approves your application or is able to bring about any modification of the contract, you will then be granted permission to work employees in accordance with the contract as originally written or modified, and can then sign the Certificate of Compliance adding to it the following: "Except as required to comply with the terms of the Agreement in effect between the undersigned and the (Name of Labor Organization)."

BATHS TO COOL

Some types of baths are cooler than others, and Miss Forbes today suggests various baths for the remaining hot days of the summer. These are beautifying as well.

If you ever feel terribly hot, either from hot weather or from too much violent exercise, try one of these baths. They are not only unusually cleansing, but very cooling as well, and they even help to reduce you, if you want to lose weight.

First of all, a warm bath is more cooling in the end than a cold one. The cold one closes the pores at once, and the heat and the perspiration, which should be washed out, is closed up in the skin. The cold water should end the bath, not begin it. A very nice warm weather bath is this:—Fill the tub with luke warm water. Pour a pound of bath bran (costs five cents) into a loose old flour or sugar bag. Squeeze this out into the water, until it looks milky, and until the bran seems to have lost its milkiness. Leave it in the tub. Soak yourself for some minutes in this, and then wash off as you usually do, using a mild soap. This bran water simply drains off acids and poisons from the body and gives you a wonderful skin. Follow this by a quick cold rinse.

Or pour some chunks of laundry starch into the water, and keep it stirred up as you bathe. If you like, run cold water in as you bathe, so you end with a cold bath which still has starch in the water. When you are dry you have a cool, fine film of powder on your skin.

Or bathe in warm water, with soap, and rinse with warm water. Sponge yourself over afterwards with witch hazel which is wonderful for the skin, and very cooling and refreshing. Or, you can get rubbing alcohol at ten to fifteen cents a quart, and a quart lasts you for a long long time. You can even dilute this with water, if you have a dry skin. And rub dry later with a towel.

Then use bath powder. Make this yourself by pouring a package of cooking corn starch into a nice bowl, and adding a little sachet powder.

Mrs. N. K. B.—The present looseness of your skin is not a serious matter, as you have lost weight rapidly without having a chance to build up the tone of the skin. At your age your skin will get firm in a short time even if you did nothing much to help it along. Douche the face and neck with very cold water several times a day following the usual bathing or when ever you massage. An ice rub is excellent too as a substitute at times for the cold rinse. Massage of face and neck will help a great deal, and you may give this to yourself several times a week. Make the movements upward on each side of the mouth, up and over the cheeks, around and around the eyes each way, up and also across the forehead. For the throat, upward and around each way. Once a week give yourself an astringent treatment until the skin is firm again. You may use white of egg diluted with five times its amount of water. Let this dry on skin for half an hour before washing it off, and then give the skin plenty of cream to relieve the dryness caused by the astringent. The cold water rinse or the ice rub should complete the treatment.

K. D.—The scars left from pimples will bleach off in time, but the eruptions caused from bad cases of acne take so long to disappear that it is advisable to have skin specialist's treatments, if possible, to hasten the recovery.

LOCAL TELEPHONE COMPANY NOW UNDER RECOVERY CODE

A copy of the president's reemployment agreement as modified for the Bell Telephone companies and accepted by NRA officials, was submitted to the Postmaster today by R. C. Sizemore, district manager for the Southwestern Bell Telephone company.

Details of the code filed here were made public in Washington August 11, at the time of its acceptance by the National recovery administration. "The company," said Mr. Sizemore, "will comply not only with the letter but the spirit of the agreement."

Complete estimates of the effect of the code on the operations of the company locally are not available as yet," he said.

FINANCIAL BUDGET OF NAVARRO COUNTY ADOPTED MONDAY

The budget for the fiscal year, [illegible] 1, 1933, to July 31, 1934, for [illegible]arro county, calling for the [illegible]diture of approximately $160,- [illegible] compared with $166,832.13 in [illegible]933, was adopted by the [illegible]ro county commissioners' [illegible] at its meeting held Monday [illegible]rnoon. The tax rates for the [illegible]ious road districts within the [illegible]unty as well as the county tax rate and the school rates in the various common school districts in the county were set Monday afternoon.

The adopted budget carried $1,575 for the county farm agent and home demonstration agent work in the county, the only change made in the budget as submitted by C. E. McWilliams, county judge, and J. M. Tullos, county auditor. The budget was based on the expected revenues for the year.

Some discussion was held relative to a probable campaign and aggressive action in the collection of delinquent taxes within the near future.

The tax rate for county purposes will be four cents on the $100 valuation lower than last year when the rate of 40 cents was adopted. The rate adopted is 20 cents for the general fund, five cents for the jury fund; 14 1-2 cents for the road and bridge fund and one-half cent for the road and bridge interest and sinking fund.

Home Demonstration Work.

The motion for the inclusion of the home demonstration work was made by Commissioner J. O. Sessions and was seconded by Commissioner Jack Megarity. Commissioner Sessions made the motion for the adoption of the budget and the measure was seconded by Commissioner Megarity. Commissioner Sessions made the motion for the adoption of the school district rates, with Commissioner J. Wesley Harris seconding the proposal.

Commissioner Sessions moved the adoption of the county tax rate with Commissioner Megarity seconding the measure.

Commissioner Megarity moved the adoption of the county road district rates with Commissioner Harris seconding the proposition.

Highway Redesignation.

Commissioner Mose W. Roberts made a motion that the court invite the citizens of Dawson and other communities along the route and the chamber of commerce to join in a move in an effort to prevail on the State highway commission to re-designate the route of Highway 31 between Corsicana and the Navarro-Hill county line to the route now in use as a highway via Pursley and Ward Brdige instead of the surveyed and designated route via Purdon and the State Home in Corsicana, and urge upon the commission the early construction of the approximately eleven miles gap between the end of the Pursley slab and the Navarro-Hill county line where the present road joins with the all-weather road in Hill county. It is expected a delegation will [illegible] before the state highway [illegible]ficials on this proposal within the immediate future.

The motion was seconded by Commissioner Sessions and was unanimously adopted.

Estimated Receipts.

Under the budget adopted, the estimated receipts are as follows and expenditures are based on the receipts:

General fund—$48,900.
Road and Bridge—$98,500.
Jury Fund—$11,200.

The budget divides the road and bridge fund receipts as follows:

Taxes, $30,000; registration fees, $62,500; interest $400; miscellaneous $5,600.

Following are the rates for the various road districts:

Consolidated Road District No. 1—75c road district 1 (1913) 4c; road district 1, (1917), 1c; district 3, 80c; district 4, 75c; district 5, 40c; district 7, 60c; district 8, 80c; district 9, 35c; district 10, 70c; district 11, nothing; district 12 (1918) 85c; district 12 (1928), 85c; district 14, 70c; district 15, 70c.

Road Districts.

Under the budget, the following figures are shown for road district needs and estimated receipts:

Principal of bonds maturing in Navarro county during the year—$98,440.35 of which $76,000 are in Consolidated road district No. 1. Interest due during the year in the road districts amounts to $216,975. Maturing bonds and interest due to a total of $315,415.35.

The state highway department through the state board of county and district road bond indebtedness in assuming bonds and interest on bonds used for the construction and improvement of state highways will asume $90,720.72, leaving for the various road districts $139,845.32. The state is paying the interest on the bonds assumed, plus 30 per cent of the maturing bonds. The remaining bonds within the county and the interest are for the lateral roads on which no state aid is available.

The tax rate in Consolidated road district No. 1 is 15 cents higher than it was last year.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Cotton opened barely steady, 2-6 lower under Southern and commission house selling and owing to the slow demand. Oct. 9.31, Dec. 9.53, Jan. 9.65, March 9.82, May 9.96, July 10.11.

Trading continued quiet after the call but prices turned somewhat steadier on trade buying and coverng which was probably promoted by a further advance in sterling. December sold up from 9.53 to 9.60 or 3 points net higher, and the market was holding steady with active positions about 2 points net higher at the end of the first half hour.

The market stiffened later in the morning following a firmer tone in the stock market, while the advancing tendency of sterling encouraged further talk of inflationary possibilities. December sold up to 9.74 with active months generally showing net advances of about 12 to 19 points, but demand failed to broaden, and prices eased off 5 to 6 points form the best around midday.

The market stiffened later in the morning following a firmer tone in the stock market, while the advancing tendency or sterling encouraged further talk of inflationary possibilities. December sold up to 9.74 with active months generally showing net advances of about 12 to 19 points, but demand failed to broaden, and prices eased off 5 to 6 points from the best around midday.

Futures closed barely steady, 2 to 5 higher; spot quiet, middling 9.30.

Fort Worth Cash Grain.

Grains Erratic.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Grains fluctuated erratically today in a thin market. An early break was followed by a rally in sympathy with stocks, but liquidation of September contracts caused further recessions.

Liverpool wheat was weaker on reports of rans in parts of Argentina, but these were said to be light and inconsequential. Cash wheat was in demand in the Southwest where heavy flour sales were reported. The pits were inactive much of the session. Corn was up and down with wheat, but was depressed too by a lack of interest. Government reports confirmed the unchanged status of the corn crop.

Wheat closed weak and 2 3-8 to 2 7-8 cents beneath yesterday's finish, corn weak, 1 7-8@2 5-8 down, oats 3-8 to 7-8 off, rye 3-4 to 1 1-2 lower, and provisions 5 to 22 cents lower.

DISEASE SPREADS

from a local member of the medical profession in regard to the ailment for which physicians claim "sleeping sickness" is a misnomer.

The child died yesterday. His death was attributed to an inflamation of the brain known as encephalitis. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Rice of Fort Worth.

In many encephalitis cases, physicians say, the victim lies for many days in a stupor giving the term of "sleeping sickness" to the ailment from which he is suffering. In almost as many cases the victim is restless instead of succumbing to a stupor, thus making the term "sleeping sickness" a misnomer.

The true sleeping sickness results from the bite of an African species of the fly, physicians say. The brain inflamation of which a number of persons in the United States have died recently is not contagious. It usually follows a nose or throat ailment.

In regard to the epidemic of sleeping sickness reported recently in St. Louis, local physicians stated that there is probably as much of an epidemic in Fort Worth if every case of encephalitis is termed "sleeping sickness." A number of cases of this type of brain inflamation have been reported in Fort Worth during the last few months, physicians said.

To the Voters of Navarro County

I have just received from Hon. James A. Farley, chairman of the National Democratic committee, letter set out below. Mr. Farley writes this to me and at the same time requests that his communication be addressed to you through the public press. As chairman of the Repeal Forces I am complying with the request of Mr. Farley by publishing his letter in full as follows:

"The states on record for the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment represent well over one-half of the population of the country. Texas voters will go to the polls on August 26th, to register their views on this question, and I as chairman of the Democratic National Committee frankly ask every supporter of our party in Texas to do his utmost to elect by a large majority the delegates to attend your constitutional convention who favor Repeal.

"I believe it is perfectly consistent for me to request the Party workers in Texas to do this because the Democratic Party is committed to Repeal. As Democrats in Chicago, over a year ago, we gave the American people a solemn pledge in our platform when we said "We believe that a party platform is a covenant with the people to have faithfully kept when entrusted with power." The Party is pledged to Repeal, and it rests with the voters of Texas to place their State in the repeal column as number twenty-three to vote in accordance with the President's and the National Administration's policy on the subject.

"The Repeal of the Eighteenth amendment will reduce the burden of income taxes. Hundreds of millions of dollars will be diverted from the coffers of criminals to the National and State treasuries if Repeal is accomplished. The gains from Repeal will be both moral and material. and who will question that both are needed now more than ever before in the history of our country. The issue is not just partisan with us it is for the benefit of these United States whose citizens we are all proud to be.

"Repeal of the Eighteenth amendment will restore to the states their rights of self-government in respect to their moral conduct and that principle is in accord with the Democratic doctrine of state rights.

"The National organization appreciates your effort in the Party's behalf in the past, and as spokesman for it I want to take this opportunity to say to you that we shall indeed be grateful for your assistance in the election of Repeal delegates on Saturday, August the 26th."

We trust that all Democrats will heed this request from the Chairman of the National Democratic Committee, and Republicans are also required by their party platform to support the movement for repeal, and we trust that the people of Navarro County will lay aside all passion and prejudice and cast their ballots for the ratification of the 21st Amendment which will repeal the 18th Amendment, and at the same time support the state amendment for the legalization of beer. The whole matter reduced to its simplest element may be thus stated: Shall we continue the present unlicensed, unbridled, unregulated, untaxed and criminal sale of beverages, or shall we change to a regulated, licensed, taxed and legal sale of beverages? Let us back our great Commander-in-Chief, Franklin D. Roosevelt and our Vice-President, John N. Garner, and give the largest majority for Repeal thus far given by any of the states.

Chairman, Repeal Forces
For Navarro County.

Zane Grey Picture At Ideal Saturday

Zane Grey's "Man of the Forest," twenty-ninth of his novels to reach the screen, will be the next attraction at the Ideal Theatre. It opens there Saturday with Randolph Scott, Harry Carey, Noah Beery, Verna Hillie and Buster Crabbe in leading roles.

Like other Zane Grey stories, "Man of the Forest" is an action-drama. Every moment is crowded with red-blooded, two-fisted action, and there's plenty of hard riding and bitter gunplay in its as well.

SHANNONS

ily guarded automobile was dispatched to bring Harvey Bailey, gangster, and kidnaping leader, from Dallas to Fort Worth this afternoon.

Walking through rows of officers, machine guns at their sides, the Shannons entered the federal building at 9:30 a. m., they, too, having been ordered brought here for a hearing before District Judge James C. Wilson to determine if their bonds of $50,000 each shall be reduced.

Conferences between attorneys for the government and the defense in which Joseph B. Keenan, assistant attorney general of the United States, assigned to kidnaping cases, took a leading part, consumed the morning.

Keenan insisted that Bailey be brought to Fort Worth. It was stated after the conference, which delayed the habeas corpus hearing that an attempt will be made to remove the Shannons and Bailey to Oklahoma City where they have just been indicted for their purported part in the kidnaping of the wealthy Charles F. Urschel of Oklahoma City.

Just before noon it was announced that the hearing had been delayed until the afternoon session, scheduled for 2 o'clock.

Defies Gangsters.

During the conference between attorneys, something was said against the removal of Bailey to Fort Worth.

"What are you afraid of?" asked Keenan who has defied the kidnapers of the nation. "Are you afraid some one will try to release him?"

"Yes," replied Federal District Attorney Clyde O. Eastus.

"Let 'em try it," replied Keenan.

Some of the Dallas county deputy sheriffs and deputy deputies of the United States Marshal's office left immediately for the Dallas county jail to accompany the gangster, Bailey, to Ft. Worth. It was said that Bailey's automobile would be even more heavily guarded than were the two that brought the Shannons here Thursday morning.

There will not likely be any attempt to change Bailey's bond today. His bail was set at $100,000 at a recent hearing before the United States commissioner at the time the Shannon's bonds were fixed at one half that amount each. After the hearing, unless the defendants appeal, they will be taken directly to Oklahoma City.

Crowds Gather.

Crowds began forming in the vicinity of the federal building shortly after 9 o'clock. Armed city and county officers began taking their posts.

A lead car carrying officers and several guns, the two cars carrying the Shannons and a car of officers that brought up the rear, came over the Fort Worth-Dallas highway. There were motorcycle officers along the route.

When the car bearing Armon Shannon, 21, and his wife, Oleta, reached the north entrance of the federal building the officers formed lines through which they passed. Machine guns were on the elevator as they were taken to the second floor. Apparently every precaution was taken to prevent anyone from harming the Shannons.

Within two minutes after the young Shannons had entered the building, a car carrying R. G. (Boss) Shannon who is the father of Armon, and the former's wife, Ora L. Shannon, arrived. They, too, passed along lines of guards with rifles and machine guns.

Guards at Vantage Points.

Throughout the morning a guard with a machine gun was on top of a hotel at the north side of the federal building.

Another was stationed on the second floor of the Salvation Army building at the west of the federal building. To the south was a large automobile in which were seated machine gun armed officers from Dallas county, each keeping a watch on persons approaching the building where the Shannons were held.

Guards, machine guns at their sides, walked past the court room door and stood around the Shannons as they waited for the hearing to begin.

Lunch was served the defendants in the marshal's office and they did not enter the court room during the morning. When announcement was made that the hearing had been delayed until afternoon, the crowd filed out of the court room, adding to the crowd in the halls.

Affection Shown.

Most of the morning, Mrs. Oleta Shannon—mother of a 14-months-old girl and expecting another bagy in about five weeks—sat beside her young husband. She held his hand and he kept his arm around her. Frequently she would rest her head upon his shoulder.

Both of the young Shannons were dressed differently than when they were arraigned in the Dallas county jail. She had on a neat dress of blue, white shoes and white hat. He had on a suit, apparently new, clean shirt but no tie.

The elder Shannon also had on different clothing, but was coatless. His wife wore the same green dress and Panama hat.

Oklahoma Attorney.

Among the early arrivals at the courthouse and who took part in the conference with the attorneys was Federal District Attorney Hyde of Oklahoma City.

Frank J. Blake, head agent for the department justice at Dallas, who has worked considerably on the case, was in the party of armed officers in the lead car that brought the Shannons to Fort Worth.

In the car with the young Shannons, who were not handcuffed, were Marshal S. L. Gross, Deputy Marshal C. H. Yager and Dallas County Deputy Sheriff Bob Alcorn. With the older couple, who were handcuffed to each other, were Dallas County Sheriff Schmidt, Deputy Sheriff Bill Decker and Deputy Marshal Charley Becke.

At her dock lies the battered steamer Madison of the old Dominion line, that came in under her own power at two o'clock this morning under the escort of the coast guard destroyer Upshur to report two members of the crew lost in the storm.

During the early part of the storm waves carried overboard Lycurgus Lawrence, of Noth Caroline, the second mate, and Edward Corbet, of New Foundland, quartermaster. The two had gone on deck to investigate the damage done by the first huge wave that struck the ship as she encountered the hurricane.

It was the first storm wave, described by Captain William Heath as being the largest he had ever seen, which tore away the forward house and wrecked much of the superstructure.

OFFICIALS NAMED TO HOLD ELECTION COUNTY SATURDAY

NUMBER OF IMPORTANT AMENDMENTS OFFERED TO VOTERS FOR APPROVAL

Presiding judges and those judges and clerks appointed by the forces for the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and the forces opposed to the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment in the forty-eight voting boxes in Navarro county have been appointed by county officials and everything is in readiness for the elections of Saturday when a number of constitutional amendments are submitted to the voters.

In some boxes only one judge was appointed by the opposing factions while in the large boxes a judge and clerk were appointed.

Following are the presiding judges of the forty-eight voting precincts:

PRESENT ROUTE OF HIGHWAY 31 WEST WAS NEVER CHANGED

OTHER SURVEYS MADE BUT ROAD WAS NEVER CHANGED, ENGINEER SAYS

State Highway 31 is designated on the present route via Ward Bridge and the Pursley slab en route west from Corsicana to the Hill-Navarro county line via Dawson and has not been designated on the proposed route via Purdon and State Home.

This information was given Thursday by M. L. Bowers, resident state highway engineer.

The Navarro county commissioners court Monday set into motion an effort to prevail on the Texas Highway Commission to complete Highway 31 from the western extremity of the 9-foot Pursley slab to the Hill county line via Dawson, a distance of approximately eleven miles, giving a good highway from Corsicana to Waco via Dawson and Hubbard.

A resolution was passed by the commissioners asking the highway department to re-designate the highway back on the present route in use, being under the impression that the surveys made via the Purdon and Jester area had been made following a relocation of the highway. The official highway maps and Mr. Bowers' statement shows the location has never been changed, and county officials and others will go to Austin within the immediate future to press the request for the completion of this road.

A treatment, as a temporary measure, of crushed rock was placed on this road last year by the maintenance department of the highway division, making the dirt road passable in practically all kinds of weather. Additional work is expected in the event the highway department does not construct a concrete pavement over this sector.

PARALYSIS VICTIM DIES IN AMBULANCE AFTER ASSISTANCE

SAN ANGELO, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Kept alive by artificial respiration since late Monday, William W. Dean, Jr., 25, Pecos, Reeves county, insurance man, died last night a few miles northwest of here in an ambulance that traveled from Pecos, 320 miles away, at a rate of 62 miles an hour. State highway patrolmen provided an escort.

Dean, a victim of infantile paralysis, was rushed almost 800 miles to Houston to an artificial respirator. Chartering an airplane for the trip was considered, but there would not have been room for a nurse, Miss Lovey Neal, and four friends, George Morrison, Hill Hudson, Jack May and L. F. Devill, who applied artificial respiration in shifts as Dean was speeded toward the "iron lung."

Dean's father and A. H. Sams, in a car preceding the ambulance, did not learn of Dean's death until they had reached Austin.

The body left here this morning for Pecos, where burial will be made probably Thursday. The widow and two small children survive.

VALLEY GRAPEFRUIT CROP EXCELLENT AND ACREAGE INCREASED

E. D. McCarver, local laundryman and public spirited citizen, has returned from a tour of the Rio Grande Valley, having gone down to look over his holdings there and take stock of the damage done by the hurricane that recently headed into parts of the Valley area.

Mr. McCarver is very enthusiastic over the outlook for the citrus fruit industry in the Texas Valley this season, especially the grapefruit and oranges. While in some places considerable numbers of the grapefruit were blown from the trees by the tail-end of the Gulf hurricane, the crop this year, he stated, would be the largest and apparently the best in the history of the industry in Texas. The trees are loaded and some of the fruit is ripening now, and thousands of additional trees have come into bearing this year, adding to the already large acreage devoted to this delectable fruit.

A number of Corsicanans and former Corsicanans, Mr. McCarver, states, have holdings in the valley, and some of them have made much money through their holdings there. Among former residents of Corsicana who have made good in the industry there are the Miller brothers, who have grown wealthy there, he said. The Tarbuttons have also made good, and so have the Speeds, and others who now reside in the Valley.

Among Corsicanans having holdings that will produce much fruit this year, Mr. McCarver mentioned C. R. Terry, the Misses Rice, and Edgar Rittersbacher, besides his own holdings, which he states show promise of excellent production. Shipments, he said, would begin during September, but that some fruit was now being marketed in the Valley towns.

Mrs. Nell Jones, assistant auditor for Navarro county, is spending several days vacation in Dallas.

AUSTIN SALESMAN RESISTS SERVING OF WARRANT; DEAD

BARRICADED HIMSELF IN HOTEL ROOM AND BATTLE RAGES THROUGH DOOR

AUSTIN, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Jesse Grooms, 34, salesman, was fatally wounded today when he barricaded himself in his hotel room and resisted service by officers of a warrant of arrest.

AUSTIN, Aug. 23.—(AP)—Jesse Grooms, of Austin, a salesman, was probably fatally wounded in a gun battle with city police, sheriff's deputies, and Texas Rangers, at a hotel here today.

Grooms had barricaded himself in a room and denied officers entrance when they appeared to serve a warrant on him.

It had not been definitely determined if a bullet fired by one of the officers wounded Grooms.

Grooms was shot in the forehead. Hospital attendants said he was not expected to live.

Deputy Sheriffs J. E. McCoy and Sam Rogers had gone to the hotel to serve Grooms with a justice court warrant charging him with embezzlement. He refused to allow the officers to enter the room the officers said. Grooms allegedly fired two shots at McCoy and Rogers during the encounter.

Aid of State Rangers was enlisted as an effort was made to force Grooms from the room by shooting tear gas shells through the window.

Sheriff Lee Allen said that while officers were waiting for the tear gas to take effect they heard a shot from inside and the room and the thud of a falling body. When officers finally forced their way into the room, Grooms was lying on the floor. A revolver was close by, officers said.

Officers said they pleaded with Grooms to accept service peaceably but that he began shooting through the door.

Two shots were fired by the officers, they said.

HURRICANE

Early today the storm, still sweeping north, whipped parts of New England with gales that crippled shipping and menaced shore communities.

Large numbers of men in Salisbury, Md., a city of 11,000 were called upon, a witness said, to dig a ditch to divert the Wicomico river and save the business section form floods. Many other towns in the lower Demava peninsula, were reported flooded and hundreds of small craft washed away.

Schooner Wrecked.

The coast guard reported the four-masted schooner Kohler washed ashore and wrecked, somewhere near Virginia Beach, but its crew was saved. Other coast guard boats saved 100 people at Willcughby Spit near, Norfolk. while still another prepared to assist a barge in distress off Cape Henry.

The seas inundated the Norfolk waterfront, shattered a pavilion at Wildwood, N. J., and sent wealthy summer residents of Cape May, N. J., fleeing from their homes. Marines patrolled the latter town, where fallen electric wires in pitch dark streets menaced lives. A 300-foot pier was swept away.

A 72-mile gale at Fort Monroe, Va., shattered many cottages occupied by non-commisisoned officers' families and only swift rescue work directed by army officers prevented loss of life. The old artillery reservation was strewn with wreckage.

In North Carolina, where the beach highway between Kitty Hawk and Nag's Head suffered heavy damage, 40 dwellers on the Albermarle Sound mounland were removed by bus to escape the storm's fury.

Other Damage.

The gale destroyed three hangars and an airplane near Easton, Md., overturned a coast guard cutter in Long Island sound and capsized a surf boat in which a dozen coast guard cadets were drilling near Montauk, Long Island. The cadets were saved.

A lumber shanty and a telephone pole, blown across the Erie tracks near Belleville, N. J., almost wrecked a train, but two boys flagged it in time. A man was electrocuted at Atlantic City, N. J., when he stepped on a fallen wire. At Sea Girt, N. J., 1,000 national guardsmen spent a sleepless night in their encampment, struggling to keep tents over their heads.

New York, with a three-day rainfall that exceeded the normal fall for the whole of August, faced serious traffic jams because of flooded highways and railroad tracks. Fallen trees strewed streets. Nearly every community in Nassau county, Long Island, was plunged into darkness last night as power lines fell.

Barnegat light, on the New Jersey coast, was endangered by the waves, while off Stone Harbor, N. J., coast guardsmen were trying to penetrate the fog to an unidentivw,aby,cleyishrd shr shr shrdsh

Believe Priest Drowned.

MT. TREMPER, N. Y., Aug. 24—(AP)—Father James Healey, of New York City, a Catholic priest, was believed to have been drowned today while trying to rescue three women tourists and two children marooned in the rising flood waters of Esopus creek.

When a breeches buoy failed to reach the women, Father Healey and another man jumped in a boat. It overturned and the priest disappeared. The other man was saved.

Summer Residents Leave.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 24.—(AP)—A short wave wireless message from Salisbury, Md., first dispatch from that city since the storm struck the area yesterday, said thousands of summer residents had evacuated Ocean City, Md.

Virtually all of the three-mile boardwalk has been destroyed and the ocean is sweeping through every building on the island, said the dispatch, which was signed by Charles J. Truitt, of the Salisbury Times, a member of the Associated Press. Many fishermen's residences and concessions have been wrecked.

The resort of Public Landing south of Ocean City was left without a building standing, he wirelessed.

Charles Foell, of Philadelphia, amateur wireless operator, received the message on his Station W3MC and said it was sent by a Salisbury amateur.

SIX THOUSAND PIGS TWO HUNDRED SOWS IN SLAUGHTER PLAN

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—(AP)—[illegible] thousand pigs and 200 sows rea[illegible]ed the livestock yards today, [illegible] opening date for the federal [illegible] hog plan to reduce the por[illegible]ply and increase prices [illegible] farmers.

Department of agricultu[illegible]cials said execution of the [illegible] awaited the close of the re[illegible] market which today consiste[illegible] 20,000 head.

The government plan provides for the purchase and slaughter of 4,000,000 pigs weighing under 100 pounds and 1,000,000 sows of more than 275 pounds and about to farrow. The unforrowed pigs to be slain would amount to an estimated 6,000,000. The prices ot be paiu range from $6 to $9.50 a hundred weight. The pork will be distributed to the unemployed through the packers.

The surplus stock will be taken up by the packers and handled in the usual manner, the government paying the packers the labor costs.

As a result of the hog buying plan, corn prices on the Chicago board of trade were sluggish, traders apparently fearing that removal of higs, which consume more than half the maize crop, will release too great a supply of corn into the ordinary trade channels. Lard and bellies showed little price change.
